HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

HOLY SPIRIT'S 14TH ANNUAL SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

Help us make Christmas Merry &
Bright for our Parish Children!

This weekend, Saturday, November 18 & and Sunday, November 19th the Religious Education Department will be handing out the Spirit of Christmas ornaments to all the parishioners who would like to help make this holiday special for the children of our parish, and to help make their holiday wishes come true. The joy this gifting gives to both the children and their families, and the incredible generosity of the Holy Spirit givers is truly what this season is all about; it is magical.

Before and after each Mass, we will be out front handing out the gift ornament requests, and we are looking forward to seeing everyone then. If you should have any questions concerning the Spirit of Christmas event, please contact Patrice Althouse who will be happy to answer any questions or concerns at 561-585-5970.

Thank you in advance to the many parishioners who help make our children's and their families dreams come true.

HOW DO WE PROCLAIM OUR FAITH?

"And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges Me before others, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the Angels of God; but whoever denies Me before others will be denied before the Angels of God." Luke 12:8-9

In our daily life, God has given us plenty of opportunities to acknowledge our faith in Christ. Our proclamation can be made by our actions, our words, our reactions in trying situations, and our thoughts and attitudes.

Today the Lord is calling us to take a moment to think and reflect on how we proclaim Jesus in any given situation. Do we truly reflect the light that God has bestowed within us or do we let it go by?

For example, in a situation where we have an acquaintance who is in despair and has lost hope in life, what is our first instinct?

- Do we attempt to help?
- If we attempt to help, do we have enough strength to proclaim hope in Jesus or are we comfortable directing them only towards a secular solution?

Through this scripture verse, we may ask ourselves:

- Are we proud and thankful for our faith in Christ?
- Do we shy away from acknowledging Christ as our Savior?

Let us pray to the Lord today to give us the grace to proclaim Jesus' name, a name given for the salvation of humankind, boldly to everyone around us. God Bless.

Please join us for Weekly Prayer gathering every Wednesday at 7pm EST in the Chapel. If you are unable to come physically, please join through Zoom. Meeting ID: 869 5740 7048.

MEDITATION: FOR BEST RESULTS, GET ON THE FLOOR

Meditation is a practice that can help us focus our full attention on the present moment. Meditation is not prayer. Nor is it contemplation or positive thinking. In fact, meditation has no content at all. Meditation of this sort is called mindfulness.

When we meditate mindfully, there's nothing we're supposed to be thinking about. Instead, we focus our attention on the present moment. To do that, we simply pay attention to our breathing – our inhaling and exhaling. This can help us live in the here and now, capturing the moment. So often, habit and our pace of living deaden us to the here and now. Our time slips right by us, under our very noses.

In particular, we're sometimes held captive by thoughts armed with a will of their own. Run riot, our stream of consciousness can rob us of inner peace and quiet. Meditation helps to check this flow. But we've got to practice it.

The best way to practice mindfulness is to sit on the floor or in a chair in an erect posture. Put all thoughts out of your mind. Just concentrate on your breathing – in and out. Take note of the course of your thoughts. If they become like water gushing from an open hydrant, bring your attention back to your breathing. This will keep you in the moment. There's no goal to this kind of meditation. We're not striving for any deep insight. It's simply a time to quiet the mind and live in the present. Try it for five minutes.

Mindfulness meditation has big benefits: it helps control thoughts, increases energy, reduces stress, and give us a sense of calm, peace, and balance. A good book on the general subject is the bestseller by Jon Kabat-Zinn, Wherever You Go, There You Are: Mindfulness Meditation in Everyday Life. And for a Catholic perspective on mindfulness, read Thomas Keating's Open Mind, Open Heart, one of many books he's written on what he calls "Centering Prayer." -Deacon Ken Vianale (kvianale@holyspiritlantana.com)

Saint of the Week

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro (1891-1927)
November 23

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s. But photographs of Father Pro—arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground—vividly, visually remind us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything! Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad. In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey!—Long Live Christ the King!" his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty. Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico fifty-two years later.

Because Love Never Dies: Dealing with Grief and the Holidays

Holidays are milestones we share with others and usually spent with family. Since holidays are for being with the ones we love, how can anyone expect to cope with them when a loved one has died? This can be the hardest part of grieving, when we miss our loved ones even more than usual. When you have lost someone special, you don't have the desire to celebrate; the holidays only magnify your loss. The need for support is greatest during the holidays. This is a time to be with family and friends accepting their love and help.

You may not believe it, but you can and will get through the holidays. Instead of avoiding the feelings of grief, lean into them. It is not the grief you want to avoid; it is the pain. Grief is the way out of pain. Grief is our internal feelings and mourning is our external expressions.

As Christians, we are taught that if we are faithful to the end, then death marks the beginning of eternal life. Although we mourn the death of our loved ones, we do so in the hope and consolation that they may enjoy happiness forever in Heaven, and that we may see them again in eternity.

FOR IT IS IN GIVING THAT WE RECEIVE

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

There are ways to incorporate your loved one and your loss into the holidays. You can include your loved one in a prayer before the Holiday dinner. You can light a candle for your loved one or create an online tribute for them. When gathering with other family members, you can share a favorite story or experience you shared with your loved one. You can request a Novena to be prayed for your loved one. Just remember, this is part of the journey to be felt fully. Sadness is allowed, but you don't have to be a victim of the pain. This is a time to be gentle with yourself; a time to remember and honor the love.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the ▼ form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.
