HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.
Saturday 9:00 a.m.

SOLEMNITY OF ST. JOSEPH, Husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Beloved Saint Joseph

“Blessed are those who dwell in Your house, O Lord; they never cease to praise You.”

This verse before the Gospel reading at today’s Mass certainly describes St. Joseph, whose feast day we celebrate today. There is no doubt that his soul dwells in God’s house where he gives praise to God. In heaven, St. Joseph and Our Lady are worshipping the son they raised on earth together! Consider the final line of today’s Gospel, which says that the twelve-year-old Jesus “went down with [his parents] and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them.” Jesus retains an intimate relationship with them, and He allows them to function as powerful intercessors on our behalf. What a great debt humanity owes to the efficacious, perpetual intercession of Our Lady and St. Joseph.

My husband and I belonged to a parish named St. Joseph for many years and, over time, we came to rely on the help and loving concern of our Savior’s foster-father. We are convinced that his intercession helped attain great grace for our family.

When my husband’s father was diagnosed with advanced cancer, he and my mother-in-law came to live with us. For many years, my in-laws had traveled the country, serving others, praying with others, and sharing the love of Christ whenever and wherever they could. Though they had left the Catholic Church twenty-five years earlier, their faith in Christ was radical and inspiring.

Now, with a terminal diagnosis, my father-in-law was approaching his eternal reward. It was a painful, beautiful time, and my husband, though he had always yearned for his dad to return to the Church, rejoiced in his father’s faithfulness to God. Nevertheless, he wanted the absolute best for his dad as he approached the end of his life, so he turned to St. Joseph for help. Every day, my husband would stop by the church and kneel before the Blessed Sacrament asking for the intercession of St. Joseph. He prayed for three things: that his father would be willing to receive the Anointing of the Sick before he died, and that, after he died, he would be given a funeral Mass and then be buried in our parish cemetery.

It is a long story, but, miraculously, all three requests were granted. We believe that St. Joseph’s intercession played a pivotal role in this happy outcome. With St. Teresa of Avila, we say, “Would that I could persuade all men to be devout to this glorious saint, for I know by...experience what blessings he can obtain for us from God.” Thank you, beloved St. Joseph, for your faithful witness, your tremendous role in salvation history, and your on-going, loving intercession. By Christine Hanus

Prayer to Saint Joseph

O Saint Joseph,
whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interest and desires. O Saint Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers.

O Saint Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposed near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath.

O Saint Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us.
Amen

Colorectal Cancer on the Rise in Younger Adults

An American Cancer Society study has found that rates of colorectal cancer (CRC) have risen dramatically in younger adults (younger than 55 years). The increase in incidence is seen particularly among persons born from the early 1960s to the early 2000s.

3 in 10 CRC diagnoses now occur among people younger than 55 years. "People born in 1990 now have double the risk of colon cancer and quadruple the risk of rectal cancer compared to people born around 1950," stated Rebecca Siegel, MPH, of the American Cancer Society, in Atlanta, Georgia. A study investigating trends in CRC incidence by year of birth, found that the risk for CRC declined until the first half of the 20th century. People born around 1950 have the lowest risk for the disease, but the risk began increasing after that date.

To turn the tide, Siegel emphasized that screening should start at age 50 years for average-risk individuals and at age 40 for those with a family history of CRC or adenomas (colon polyps) in a first-degree relative. Because screening is not recommended for average-risk individuals younger than 50 years, CRC in younger adults is often "not on anyone's radar."

There is reason to believe that this increase in younger adults is due to the increase in obesity, sedentary lifestyles, and unhealthy diets. A major concern about the increase in CRC in younger age groups is the risk of being diagnosed with later-stage disease. "There are delays in diagnosis because younger people aren't aware of symptoms of cancer, and their primary care doctors aren't thinking about it in their younger patients," said Siegel. Also, younger patients are much more likely to be uninsured, which is associated with diagnosis at a later stage.

If you fall into this age group and have a family history of CRC or adenomas in an immediate family member, speak to your doctor about early screening. Colorectal cancer can be cured when diagnosed early.

FORGOTTEN SOLDIER OUTREACH

"WE CARE" PACKAGES

FEBRUARY 14- MARCH 24

Forgotten Soldiers Outreach depends on generous donations and volunteers to continue the mission of sending "that little bit of home" to our troops. The "WE CARE" packages are full of hygiene items, snacks, treats, and letters of encouragement. All of these items are donated. Monetary donations are used to cover shipping costs. Volunteers work tirelessly sorting donations, checking inventory, and packing boxes. Forgotten Soldiers Outreach is based in Lake Worth, Florida. Volunteers are local and help in the warehouse and office.

Holy Spirit Council of Catholic Women is sponsoring the Parish Lenten Project. Please look at the list of items needed to fill packages. A large collection box will be located in the foyer weekly for donations of the items below. Families may also use the "WE CARE" Boxes to save cash donations throughout Lent to purchase items and postage. "WE CARE" Boxes should be returned by Palm Sunday March 24th.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
