HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.

Saturday 9:00 a.m.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

O God, Who on this day,
through Your Only Begotten Son,
have conquered death
and unlocked for us the path to eternity.
Grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection
may, through the renewal brought by Your Spirit, rise up in the light of life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
Your Son, who lives and reigns with
You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Message from our Pastor— Fr. Eli St. Fort

Dear Friends:

Jesus suffered, died and rose again to reconcile the world to the Father. All our efforts this Lent have been to further this reconciliation among ourselves and with our God.

The events we commemorate this Holy Week have made this possible. Jesus' life, death, and resurrection enable us to overcome the world and to "bear" the likeness of the man from heaven.

May the hope of the Resurrection keep the joy of the Lord and His peace in your hearts.

A Blessed Holy Easter!

Update Church Pews and Carpet Remodeling

Everyone is aware of our parish renovation starting in August. Please be aware that the replacement cost of the pews is $212,000.00. The carpet replacement cost is $46,000.00. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to parishioners and visitors who have generously contributed. For those of you who would like to help in any way, you may drop your donation in the collection basket, drop off or mail to the parish office. Please write on the envelope "PEWS AND CARPET".

Religious Education Program

Happy Easter! The Religious Education Department would like to say thank you so much for the amazing outpouring of donations which has made our Easter Basket campaign for 2024 incredibly successful. As you leave church today, you can see the hundreds of children who are excitedly finding their very favorite Easter basket to take home and enjoy. This is always made possible by the loving, incredibly generous donations made for the children in our parish from the giving people of our parish.

We would also like to thank the many volunteers who came together to put all of our eggs in different baskets! Putting the baskets together is always a joy, and they give of their time, talent and love for our church and for the children in order to make all of these gorgeous baskets happen. A huge thank you to these blessed individuals for all that they do.

With springtime, we look forward to our First Communion mass, and the class receiving their sacrament on Saturday, May 11th from 10:00 am to 11:00 a.m. with Father Eli in the church. Then on Sunday, we will have Confirmation with Bishop Gerald Barbarito on Sunday, May 19th from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. also in the church. Hope you can join us, and Happy Spring!

Thank you, Manny & Amia Zaide for the photos.

Reflections

THE RESURRECTION OF THE Lord

God's Divine Plan

"God, infinitely perfect and blessed in Himself, in a plan of sheer goodness, freely created man to make Him share in His own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek Him, to know Him, to love Him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of His family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In His Son and through Him, He invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, His adopted children and thus heirs of His blessed life." -CCC 1

This is the first paragraph from the catechism and I think it perfectly sums up what we celebrate today on this beautiful Easter morning. In today's first reading we hear the entire Gospel story being preached by Peter. This is the same Peter who denied Jesus three times just a few days before, and who we read about in the Gospel as not fully understanding what Christ was doing until he saw the empty tomb. Peter then knew the plans of God and could easily and succinctly proclaim them to all people.

The goal of the Lenten season is to bring us to a point where we can realize that our destiny is to share in the divine life of God. This isn't just a vague sentimental idea or ambiguous theology, but it is the entire point of our lives. Jesus loved you enough to die on a tree in order that you might receive adoption as His beloved. It seems simple enough, but do we really grasp the depth of the meaning? Easter morning is the good news that not only were you bought back at a price, but that the death of God was not the end. Rather, it was just the beginning. Christ rising from the dead defeated sin and death once and for all and claims us back as adopted children.

This is why Easter is the most important feast in our liturgical calendar. And God wants us to feast. We might be a little rusty after 40 days of fasting, but God wants us to pull out all the stops. I recommend making the nicest dinner you can within your means and celebrate as a family what Christ has done in conquering sin and death. The Easter egg hunts are fun and everybody likes baked ham, but let's not forget the reason for this season. That God desired for you to be saved and come to share in His divine life. This is enough to make even the worst of sinners or hardened criminals rejoice. As John Paul II said often, "We are an Easter people, and Hallelujah is our song." Now go feast!

From all of us here at Diocesan, God bless! By Tommy Shultz

Easter Sunday

A Good Day to Die

Do you remember your own baptism? I wish I could; I was baptized as an infant, just a few days old. I envy the adults I have seen baptized at the Easter Vigil. Hopefully, they experience what St. Paul says in the epistle we hear at the Vigil. For Paul, Baptism is a sign of dying and rising to new life. Sounds like Easter to me. So when Jesus died, He rose from the dead. Is Paul telling us that we will rise from the dead, too?

Yes, but that is not His main point. If all we think about is our physical death, and hope we go to heaven afterwards, we're missing the point. The new life starts with our baptism, not just our physical death. That's why Paul says things like, "our old self was crucified" or "sinful body done away with...." (Rom 6:6) Baptism gives us a new life NOW. The water is both cleansing and a sign of dying (symbolic drowning) that help us see we are free from sin. We are dead to sin when we begin to live in Christ. The fictional Klingons have a saying "today is a good day to die" to express courage in battle. But real Christians might say that Easter is a good day to die: we have died to sin and begun a new life in Christ. How do we experience this dying to sin? First, we identify the sinful areas of our life. Do I watch movies, video games, or TV shows that encourage promiscuity, lying, revenge, hatred or selfishness? What sins do I confess repeatedly and what can I do to avoid them?

Next we look for ways to act differently: Can I spend more time with friends/relatives who are examples of love? Can I spend less time entertaining myself and more time in prayer? Instead of complaining about what is wrong with the world, can I find ways to make it better? (If not the world, then my community or family.) These are a few of the ways we begin our new life in Christ.

HOPE OF RESURRECTION

Rejoice!
He Is Risen!

“Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in Him, if you continue in My Word, you are truly My disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” John 8:31-32

Knowing Jesus means knowing the truth that we have a life after this present life on earth. However, the dark clouds of lies and sins often keep us away from this truth. Rather, we engage in things and passions that mirror the life of this world.

Jesus Christ is the absolute truth. The merits of His passion, death and Resurrection set us free from the bondage of sin. A freedom, if exercised properly and in the right manner is a sure path to the glory that is manifested in Jesus on Easter Sunday. The power of resurrection and a glorious eternal life will liberate us.

When we abide by the truth of Christ, we will not despair. We will have the power of the Cross and the hope of the Resurrection within us as we believe in Jesus. The sad reality is, just as the Pharisees of Jesus’ time, there are many around us or even we, at times, who are ignorant of this truth. Often to find happiness, rather than relying on Jesus, we end up delving into our own passions and in slavery of sin that weigh the soul down.

For a moment today, let us contemplate- Are we truly experiencing freedom in Christ?

Do we get weighed down by trials and emotional despair or do we rise above it with hope in Christ?

Do we truly practice and share the power of Christ?

Let us share the power of the Resurrected Christ and eternal and unfading hope with those in need of freedom from the lingering cloud of hopelessness and despair.

VOCATION CHALICE

Vocation Chalice Ministry is an effort to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Each Sunday after communion, the family scheduled will receive the Vocation Chalice which has been set aside for this purpose. They receive a blessing and take the chalice home, putting it in a place of honor. Each day of the week, the family prays for an increase in and perseverance of vocations.

The Vocation Chalice will be handed on Sunday at the 12:00noon Mass. If you are interested in bringing the chalice home, call the parish office during office hours or you may send an e-mail to our parish e-mail.

Elder Abuse

Think about all the things you do each morning after you wake. . .get out of bed, go to the bathroom, take a shower, get dressed, make yourself breakfast, take your medication, do some personal grooming, and get into your car and drive to work or school.

Now imagine for a moment that you have an illness, disability or cognitive limitation and you must rely upon another person to do all or many of these things for you. Some of the most personal, intimate, and confidential parts of your life now require the assistance and involvement of another person. Sometimes this other person will be a family member or it could be a complete stranger who is paid to help you do these things. If these people are not willing or able to meet your needs in a safe way, then you are at great risk of being abused, neglected or exploited.

Abuse may be physical, mental, emotional, or sexual. Neglect can be self-neglect or neglect by a caregiver. Exploitation is when a person in a position of trust knowingly, by deception and intimidation, obtains and uses or tries to obtain and use a vulnerable person's funds, assets, or property. This includes failure to use the vulnerable person's income and assets to provide for the necessities required for that person's care.

Groups most at risk for elder abuse include: older women (older men may be just as much at risk but are less frequently reported); the higher the age, the greater the risk; those who live with a caregiver or depend on someone for care and assistance; physically frail or disabled; and those who are confused, disoriented, or mentally impaired.

Florida Law requires that any person who knows, or has reasonable cause to suspect, that a vulnerable adult has been or is being abused, neglected, or exploited shall immediately report such knowledge or suspicion to the Florida Abuse Hotline, 1-800-96ABUSE (1-800-962-2873)

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
