WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS & THE ELDERLY

HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

MID-WEEK SOUL REFRESHER!

Praise be to Jesus Christ our Saviour!!

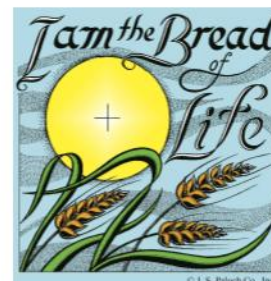

“When He looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward Him, Jesus said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?” He said this to test him, for He himself knew what He was going to do.” (John 6:5-6 )

In this scripture portion, Jesus was going to multiply the bread to feed the people, hungry and thirsty and were following HIM. Though Jesus knew His plan of action, HE asked one of His disciple - Philip of how we can do this task of feeding the hungry crowd. “Philip answered Him, “Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.” (John 6:7)

Philip’s situation is our state!! Though we have seen numerous miracles and wonders of Christ within us and around us, when we are faced with a crisis we doubt and get discouraged with the impossibilities in front of us just like Philip. At times this situation might be to test our Faith too. So rather than brooding over impossibilities, let us always remember that our God is a God of Possibilities!

Let us pray that each day when we are faced with daily challenges, let the challenge be a source to increase our Faith in Jesus Christ!!

God Bless.

Please join us for a weekly prayer gathering every Wednesday at 7pm EST. Please contact us through email for the temporary location since construction begins on August 1st in our parish.

The Long Goodbye. . .(Part 2)

As stated in part 1, Grief is a family matter as much as it is an individual one. Grief begins at the diagnosis of a terminal illness or a potentially terminal illness.

Families face complex challenges when confronted with a terminal diagnosis of a loved one. The family structure and dynamics evolve or shift as the person they love slowly slips away. Coping with setbacks, deterioration as well as periods of remission play upon the emotional strength of each family member. Dealing with the complexities of extended grief can wear individuals down and lead at times to ambivalence or the unpleasant feelings of guilt experienced when wishing the process would come to an end. It also means talking with a dying loved one about mortality and other issues associated with death.

Most important, a new grief involves when families must confront issues that may have been dormant but unresolved for many years. These issues typically re-emerge as families move past their initial reactions to a terminal diagnosis and are forced to interact and work together through a process of extended grief. Finally, it means moving forward together as a stronger family after a loved one passes.

Without understanding and guidance from professionals, family members who are forced by circumstances to cope with prolonged grief are vulnerable to serious psychological consequences, including depression, guilt, and anxiety. These circumstances can lead to physical illness. The family unit becomes vulnerable when unresolved issues surface as a result of a prolonged terminal illness in a loved one. Loving couples may find their relationships in jeopardy as a consequence of unwanted lifestyle changes. Families need professional guidance during this time and in the future for how to anticipate and deal with such issues.

Next week, we will begin to explore a five-stage model for family grief (Crisis, Unity, Upheaval, Resolution, and Renewal). There are no hard-and-fast boundaries separating these stages. Every family will experience each stage, but may experience issues associated with more than one stage at any given time. The stages vary in length and intensity, depending on the length of the terminal illness and whether there are any significant periods of remission.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
