HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.

Saturday 9:00 a.m.

Saturday Vigil 4:00 p.m., 7:00 p.m. Polish Mass

Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 10:30 a.m. and Noon

2:00 p.m. Latin Mass

4:30 p.m. Vietnamese Mass

Confessions in Church

Saturday 2:30 p.m.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

*God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation,
we humbly stand before You as
Your children in thanksgiving for Your loving care and protection.*

We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

*Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in
Your love and mercy.
You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind
and the rain.
You alone bring peace, calm,
and safety.*

*Father,
we thank You in advance,
for You are our only Refuge.*

*We ask this through Christ,
Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God,
forever and ever.
Amen.*

*Mary, Queen of the Apostles,
and Patroness of our Diocese,
Pray for us.*

MID-WEEK SOUL REFRESHER!

Praise be to Jesus Christ Our Saviour!

*“Jesus said to them,
“I am the Bread of Life;
whoever comes to Me will never hunger, and whoever believes in Me will never thirst.”
(John 6:35)*

Hunger is an essential trigger for human beings to meet the required nourishment of the body. Just as our body hungers for food, our soul desires and craves for spiritual bread. It is essential that we feed our soul with the right nourishment or it too will have complications as those we see in our physical body. Jesus, aware of this constant craving to gratify our soul and our inclination to go astray for the same, redirects us to Him.

Only Jesus can gratify the hunger of our soul. Only Jesus can satisfy our parched souls. Jesus is the living bread in the Holy Eucharist and the Word of God.

This is a call and a reminder for all of us to not go astray in the world by looking for temporary gratification but to turn to Jesus for a constant source of strength and spiritual nourishment needed for this life and our eternal life.

Please join us for a weekly prayer gathering every Wednesday at 7pm EST. Please contact us through email for the temporary location as construction is going on in our parish. If you want to join through Zoom, please use ID 869 5740 7048 afcmflorida@gmail.com

God Bless,
AFCM Florida

Back To School Prayer

Almighty God,
We give you our school.
We give you all the teachers and staff
who work here.
We give you all the children who study
here.
We pray our school would be a place of great discovery, adventure and creativity.
May it be a place where we love
to learn and where we lean to love.
A place where everyone is respected
and all are deeply valued.
We ask all this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Long Goodbye. . .(Part 3)

We will begin to explore a five-stage model for family grief as outlined by the Harvard Help Guide when a family member has been given a diagnosis of a terminal illness or a potentially terminal illness. There are no hard-and-fast boundaries separating these stages. Every family will experience each stage, but may experience issues associated with more than one stage at any given time. The stages vary in length and intensity, depending on the length of the terminal illness and whether there are any significant periods of remission.

Stage 1: Crisis – The diagnosis of a terminal illness disrupts the family’s equilibrium. How each member reacts at this stage depends upon the history and current status of the relationship with the ill family member. Whether the loved one is a spouse, a parent, or a child, and what the patient’s past and current roles in the family, dictate the impact of the diagnosis on each family member.

Anxiety is the most common initial reaction to the news, but if the relationship with the ill family member has been strained or alienated, the feelings of guilt, resentment and anger may surface. If the terminally ill family member is a child or young adult, anger at the possibility of an early death may become the dominant emotion shared by family members at this first stage.

Knowing what to expect in terms of emotional reactions, where to seek help, and how to support the dying loved one are all issues that surface during this first stage.

Stage 2: Unity – The reality of impending death pushes family members to put longstanding complaints or grudges on hold as they pull together in this second stage of grieving. The needs of the dying family member become paramount. This may cause some internal conflict for family members with unresolved issues with the patient.

A major issue for all family members is how they define their roles with respect to one another and the terminally ill member. If not prepared, family members may find themselves regressing into roles as children or adolescents, but not a role they would consciously choose now as adults.

The family has much work to do at this second stage: choosing and working with a medical team; navigating the social services maze; pursuing and qualifying for entitlements for the patient; and ensuring that critical legal work (wills, living wills, power of attorney documents, etc.) is completed. How the family organizes itself so that these tasks can be completed has a powerful psychological effect on each member.

Next week, we will continue with stages 3 & 4, (Upheaval and Resolution).

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
