HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

*God our Father, Creator of the Universe
and Lord over all creation,
we humbly stand before You as Your children in thanksgiving for Your loving care and protection.*

*We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.
Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy.
You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.
Father,
we thank You in advance,
for You are our only Refuge.*

*We ask this through Christ,
Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God,
forever and ever.
Amen.*

*Mary, Queen of the Apostles,
and Patroness of our Diocese,
Pray for us.*

Eternal Father, I offer thee the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my home and within my family. Amen."

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen"

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Here I am, send me

The celebration of World Mission Day is aimed at supporting the missionary work carried out in my name by the Pontifical Mission Societies, in order to meet the spiritual and material needs of peoples and Churches throughout the world, for the salvation of all.
~Pope Francis

The Church, therefore, is missionary by her very nature. She continues the mission of the Son and the mission of the Holy Spirit by proclaiming to the ends of the earth the salvation Christ offers those who believe in Him. We are faithful to the nature of the Church to the degree that we love and sincerely promote her missionary activity. As teachers and pastors we are responsible for keeping alive a vibrant Catholic missionary spirit in the United States.

Reflections

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time Great Service

In Mark's gospel, he has a short description of the Last Supper, without the washing of the disciples' feet found in the gospel of John. Today's passage has a similar message. While James and John seem to be close friends of Jesus, they obviously have not learned what it means to follow Him. But they think this is the time to ask for their share in the glory of Jesus' Kingdom.

Jesus doesn't make any promises of worldly glory, but He does promise a share in His suffering. When He goes on to remind them of how Gentiles rule over people, they probably thought He was going to let them do the same. Imagine their surprise when He told them that the greatest of them would be the ones who served the rest.

They still did not understand that Jesus had to suffer and die to complete His life mission. They probably did not know what Jesus meant about their being baptized in death as Jesus would. But then how many people today know that leadership is a form of service? Whether you are head of a family, or of a nation, you were given that authority by God. And God expects leaders to not only direct those under them, but inspire and encourage them to do better. Parents do more than correct their children: They also guide them, love them, protect them, and sometimes even let them learn from their mistakes.

This connection of leadership and service is all inclusive. A manager is called to help his employees do their jobs better, not by badgering, but by giving the support they need. Government leaders are called to serve all constituents, not just the ones who donate to their election fund. Military leaders must support their troops with respect as well as discipline. God calls Church leaders in a special way to service of their flock: to protect the weakest members, to give an example of Jesus' love to all, and to be open to the movement of the Holy Spirit in both clergy and laity. Anyone who lives a life of loving service can be "greatest" in the Kingdom of God.

Charismatic Prayer Group

“If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” (Luke 11:13)

No matter how our children behave, we always want to give them the best within our capacity. Oftentimes, we may go beyond our means to provide, especially when we wish to give them that which we think is best for them.

If, we as humans, ensure that we provide the best for our children, how much more our Heavenly Father will do for us, His children. Unlike we who are limited, He is a Father who is limitless and can provide us with everything that is good for us according to His will, especially the Holy Spirit, that is needed for our spiritual sustenance in this world. It is just a matter of asking.

“So, I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.” (Luke 11:9)

So, without hesitance let us ask our Heavenly Father to fill us with the Holy Spirit that we may lead a life of wisdom that strives to fulfill His Divine Will in us.

Crohn's Disease, Final

Last week, we learned the risk factors for Crohn's Disease which included: Age; Ethnicity; Family history, history of cigarette smoking; and the frequent use of nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory medications. Please see your physician if you have any of the symptoms of Crohn's disease.

Complications: Crohn's disease may lead to one or more of the following complications: Bowel obstruction. Crohn's disease can affect the entire thickness of the intestinal wall. Over time, parts of the bowel can scar and narrow, which may block the flow of digestive contents, often known as a stricture. Surgery may be necessary. Ulcers. Chronic inflammation can lead to open sores (ulcers) anywhere in your digestive tract, including your mouth and anus, and in the genital area (perineum). Fistulas. Sometimes ulcers can extend completely through the intestinal wall, creating a fistula — an abnormal connection between different body parts. Fistulas can develop between your intestine and your skin, or between your intestine and another organ. Fistulas near or around the anal area (perianal) are the most common kind. These can be life-threatening if not treated. Anal fissure. This is a small tear in the tissue that lines the anus or in the skin around the anus where infections can occur. Malnutrition. Diarrhea, abdominal pain and cramping may make it difficult for you to eat or for your intestine to absorb enough nutrients to keep you nourished. It's also common to develop anemia due to low iron or vitamin B-12 caused by the disease. Colon cancer. Having Crohn's disease that affects your colon increases your risk of colon cancer. A colonoscopy to screen for colon cancer is recommended about 8 years after disease onset and generally is performed every 1 to 2 years afterward. Ask your doctor whether you need to have this test done sooner and more frequently. Skin disorders. Many people with Crohn's disease may also develop a condition called hidradenitis suppurativa. This skin disorder involves deep nodules, tunnels and abscesses in the armpits, groin, under the breasts, and in the perianal or genital area. Medication risks. Certain Crohn's disease drugs that act by blocking functions of the immune system are associated with a small risk of developing cancers such as lymphoma and skin cancers. They also increase the risk of infections. Corticosteroids can be associated with a risk of osteoporosis, bone fractures, cataracts, glaucoma, diabetes and high blood pressure, among other conditions. Work with your doctor to determine risks and benefits of medications. Blood clots. Crohn's disease increases the risk of blood clots in veins and arteries.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month. This disease effects men as well as women. More to follow on October 27th. Finally, Open Enrollment for Medicare and Medicare advantage plans, as well as, Medicare Supplements begins October 15th and concludes on December 7th.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
