The Solemnity of All Saints

November 1

HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

ALL SAINTS

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. (Mt 5:12)

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Parthenon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

All Soul's day commemorates all of the faithful departed, and offers us the opportunity to aid the poor souls in purgatory by our prayers and devotions. In fact, an indulgence for the souls in purgatory is granted to the faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray for the departed.

ALL SOULS

For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day. (Jn 6:40)

Pope Francis Canonizes 14 New Saints

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2024 - Pilgrims gathered in St. Peter Square for a Mass and Canonization for 14 new saints. Thousands of pilgrims prayed the Litany of the Saints together.

St. Giuseppe Allamano - a diocesan priest from Italy, founder of Consolata Missionary Orders. His spiritual director was St. John Bosco.

St. Marie - Leonie Paradis - "Humble Among the Humble", from Montreal, Canada. Founded an order for service of priests.

St. Elena Guerra - "Apostle of the Holy Spirit" She composed prayers to the Holy Spirit including the Holy Spirit Chaplet asking the Lord to "send forth Your Spirit and renew the world."

St. Manuel Ruiz and his Seven Franciscan Companions - Martyrs of Damascus: Courageous Witnesses of Faith. Father Carmelo Bolta, Father Nicanor Ascanio, Father Nicolás M. Alberca y Torres, Father Pedro Soler, Kolland, Brother Francisco Pinazo Peñalver and Brother Juan S. Fernández. These men were attacked in a church in the Christian quarter of Damascus. They were killed for refusing to renounce their Christian faith and convert to Islam.

Sts. Francis, Abdel Mooti and Raphael Massabki. Three laymen who were brothers and who gave deep piety and devotion to the Christian Faith. They were offered to live if they renounced their faith but they refused. "We are Christians, and we want to live and die as Christians,"

"We confidently ask for their intercession so that we too can follow Christ, follow Him in service and become witnesses of hope for the world," the Pope said.

30TH

SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflections

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Man of Many Talents

When you think of Jesus, what do you think was His job? Healer of the sick, the lame and the blind, as in today's gospel? Preacher? Teacher? Leader of men? Messiah? The second reading from Hebrews reminds us of His main duty: Priest. It calls Him a High Priest, referring to the Jewish priesthood in which one priest was chosen each year to offer the most important sacrifices and so appeal to God for forgiveness of the peoples' sins. Now this may sound like primitive religion, but it actually lets us understand Jesus even better.

The high priest offered sacrifice for His own sins, as well as the peoples'. While Jesus did not sin, He experienced temptations just as we do and so can intercede for us as one who knows what it is like to be tempted. He also knows suffering, from His passion and death on the cross. If you ever wonder if you deserve to be forgiven, remember that Jesus died for all sinners, deserving or not. The High Priest was the one to bring the Israelites prayers to God and God's blessings to the people. Jesus also brings our prayers to his Father and shows us the Father's love.

Our baptism gives us a share in that priesthood. You don't have to be ordained to pray for your friends and family. You don't have to be a bishop to bring God's love to those around you. When you listen to a friend who is hurting, or forgive someone who hurts you, you are blessing them with God's love. When you encourage them to have faith and trust in the Lord, you are bringing them to God. You are sharing in the priesthood of Christ.

The Blind Bartimaeus

He Threw Aside His Cloak

Jesus has come to destroy all the enemies of our fullness of life with God, and restore humanity's trust in the love of the Father, which Adam and Eve had rejected. But He respects our freedom and waits for us to ask in trust, to open ourselves in trust to His grace and power, and to receive in trust all that He longs to give us.

Bartimaeus is a blind beggar. His physical eyes see no light; but his eyes of faith see clearly that Jesus is the Promised One, the One who will reestablish the Davidic Kingdom, the Messiah, his only hope. So he cries out for help, even as others tell him to stop, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" His trusting faith is the source of his persistence. And Love stops for him and calls him. In response, Bartimaeus throws off the one thing that belongs to him, the only protection he has, the one thing he can depend on - his cloak - and allows himself to be led to Jesus. Jesus asks him what he wants and listens to his desire. "Master, I want to see," Bartimaeus says simply, in confident faith. And with a word from the Lord, he can see.

What Bartimaeus does next is the key to understanding the whole story. On receiving his sight, we are told, Bartimaeus "followed Him on the way." When faith is engaged, when we trust fully, when our eyes are opened, we must follow the Lord.

Where do we need Christ's healing in our lives, our minds, our hearts? Where is our faith weak, our trust flailing, our eyes clouded? What do we need to lift up in trusting faith to Love's powerful gaze? What cloak of self-sufficiency do we cling to, that might be holding us back from a blind confidence in God's loving Providence? How willing are we to throw it aside to be led to Christ?

Lord, fill us with the same trusting faith in Your Love that Bartimaeus had, and give us the courage to cry out to You with our needs, knowing that You are the One Who can do all things!

faith has saved you."*

CHURCH RENOVATIONS DEVELOPMENT

There are some new developments in our remodeling project. We now need to replace the skylight and the roof. The replacement cost for this was not in our original remodeling budget, so any donations to replace funds for our additional expenses would be greatly appreciated. Please make sure to designate your donation for the remodeling project.

Thank you for your support in making our church more beautiful for our Holy Spirit family.

Our sincere appreciation to parishioners and friends who have already donated. May God bless you for your generosity.

Thank You, Patrice Althouse, Lonnie Keyloun and Poor Clare Nuns for the photos.

Charismatic Prayer Group

"Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" The blind man said to Him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed Him on the way." (Mark 10:51-52)

Faith is a gift from God. A gift that helps us to trust God with everything, knowing that He is the only one who can help us in any given situation. To receive sight without any physical intervention is an impossible task even today. In the Scripture we see that the blind man had unwavering faith in Jesus and in His ability to make impossible things possible. And when he expressed his desire to Jesus, a divine intervention took place, restoring his eyesight.

We all have received faith, but the question is do we put our faith in to practice? We all have our own problems and trials that need restoration. Having that unwavering trust in Christ will help us receive restoration through divine intervention or give us enough grace and strength to sustain us through our problems.

Do we have unwavering faith? If not, let us beseech God as did the Apostles, "The Apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!'" (Luke 17:5)

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Breast Cancer Awareness Month can be a good reminder to learn more about breast cancer, the risk factors for you and those you love (and how to minimize them) and the importance of being screened for the disease.

Breast Cancer awareness: Statistics

Breast cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer among American women.

Black women are most likely to die from breast cancer than women of any other racial or ethnic group. Researchers believe that it's partially because 1 in 5 Black women is diagnosed with triple-negative breast cancer, more than any other racial or ethnic group, (it's harder to treat, treatment options are fewer and it's more aggressive).

About 85% of breast cancers occur in women who have no family history of breast cancer. These occur due to genetic mutations that happen as a result of the aging process, environmental exposures and life in general, rather than inherited mutations.

Approximately 2,710 American men this year are expected to be diagnosed with breast cancer, and about 530 are expected to die from the disease. Lack of awareness and stigma can be barriers to detection and care.

Breast cancer risk factors you cannot change:

Getting older. The risk for breast cancer increases with age.

Genetic mutations. Women who have inherited changes (mutations) to certain genes, such as BRCA1 and BRCA2, are at higher risk of breast and ovarian cancer.

Reproductive history. Starting menstrual periods before age 12 and starting menopause after age 55 expose women to hormones longer, raising their risk of getting breast cancer.

Having dense breasts. Dense breasts have more connective tissue than fatty tissue, which can sometimes make it difficult to see tumors on a mammogram. Women with dense breasts are more likely to get breast cancer.

Personal history of breast cancer or certain non-cancerous breast diseases. Women with a history of breast cancer are more likely to get breast cancer a second time. Non-cancerous breast diseases such as atypical ductal hyperplasia or lobular carcinoma in situ (in the original or appropriate position) are associated with a higher risk of getting breast cancer.

Family history of breast or ovarian cancer. A woman's risk for breast cancer is higher if she has a mother, sister, or daughter (first-degree relative) or multiple family members on either her mother's or father's side of the family who have had breast or ovarian cancer.

Previous treatment using radiation therapy. Women who had radiation therapy to the chest or breasts (as in treatment of Hodgkin's lymphoma) before age 30 have a higher risk of getting breast cancer later in life.

Exposure to the drug diethylstilbestrol (DES). DES was given to some pregnant women in the U.S. between 1940 and 1971 to prevent miscarriage. Women who took DES and women whose mothers took DES while pregnant with them also may have a higher risk of getting breast cancer.

Breast cancer can be cured if discovered early. See your doctor for regular check-ups and get screened.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.
