HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer. – Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, no. 100
 Join thousands as we pray.

Father in heaven, may the faith You have given us in Your Son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of Your Kingdom.

May Your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, Your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To You our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

CHANGING THE PARISH FLAG

Have you ever wondered how we change our parish flag? Due to the height of our flag pole, we have to ask the assistance of the fire department for the ladder truck.

Our sincere appreciation to Palm Beach County Fire Department for their assistance in helping make this possible.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We have the wedding at Cana at the heart of today's liturgy because this story of Jesus' first miracle of water turned into wine was originally part of the Epiphany feast. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and a people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. The mother of Jesus has been recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arises, she does what she can to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ's blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the "Nuptial Blessing," one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate this day as a mini-anniversary, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine.

JOHN 2:5

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Flipped-out Pharisees

The Gospel reading for this Sunday is not only the first miracle in John's Gospel, it is also John's first mention of Jesus' mother. I used to find it odd that Jesus addressed her as "Woman." I can't imagine my Dad letting me get away with that. But in that time the word was more respectful; it could even be affectionate. (The last time Jesus speaks to his mother—John 19:26—he also calls her "Woman." He certainly wasn't being disrespectful on the cross.) Jesus does help as his mother requested, but he does so in a way that doesn't draw attention to himself and also is a lesson about God's love.

You have probably heard how the Jewish people in Jesus' time performed purification rituals before eating anything. The cleansings were a sign that they wanted to be like God, completely free from sin. Eventually, it came to mean that you could not approach God until you cleansed yourself. Jesus used the miracle to show us a different way of understanding holiness. Jesus could have made the wine in bottles or wineskins to show that it was new. But he used the "six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings" (John 2:6). That meant that once they were full of wine, no one could wash themselves from the jars. I wonder how many Pharisees flipped out when they saw that.

The point is that no one can cleanse themselves. We don't purify ourselves in order to come to God—we come to God to be purified. God is the only one who can make us holy. God offers this to sinners especially, because sinners who know they need forgiveness are the only ones to receive it. Not because God excludes the rest. Those who don't think they are sinners or don't think they can be forgiven won't ask for it. God never forces mercy on anyone. It is offered to those who ask for it. The amount of wine (six big jars of about twenty-five gallons each) symbolizes the extent of God's mercy. As there was now more than enough wine for the wedding, God has more than enough mercy for those who need it. Wine is also a symbol of joy in the Old Testament. There is no greater joy than knowing that you have been forgiven by the Lord.

SAINT AGNES (died 304)

January 21

Writing about Saint Agnes in the year 377, Saint Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, declared: "This is a virgin's birthday into heaven: let us imitate her chastity! And a martyr's heavenly birthday: let us offer ourselves in sacrifice!" Chastity: mastery of oneself in order to give of oneself whether in the priestly, religious, married, or single state. Sacrifice: "to make holy," to set someone or something apart for service. Ambrose knew these virtues indispensable for discipleship, but challenging to practice in his world—or our own. Barely a teenager, Agnes faced gruesome tortures bravely and, when ordered to worship pagan gods, boldly made the Sign of the Cross instead. Thus, her youthful courage strengthened adult believers who wavered under persecution or grew indifferent when persecutions passed. To bestow on Agnes its highest honor and keep her witness fresh in believers' hearts, the Church inscribed her name at the heart of the Eucharistic liturgy, in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer I), until Vatican II the Roman Church's only Eucharistic Prayer. —Peter Scagnelli

MARY, OUR MEDIATRIX

“His mother said to the servants, ‘Do whatever He tells you.’” (John 2:5)

This quotation is in stark contrast to the secular teaching of the world which is in a constant chase for power and authority. Despite being the Mother of Jesus, and having the ability to display that power, Mother Mary humbly points to Jesus for a solution to the hosts’ embarrassing situation. Even today through her different apparitions, the sole action of our Blessed Lady is to direct our broken souls to Jesus for conversion and restoration.

At the Wedding at Cana, through the intervention of the Blessed Mother, the hosts’ unfortunate situation was restored to completeness. Likewise, when we go through Mary, our diluted and broken lives can change to a new wine filled with hope and renewed life in Christ. Do not shy away from our dear Mother, but rather let us be confident to approach her and call her to be by our side in every state of life.

MOTHER MARY PRAY FOR US.

Please contact us at 561-635-3869 for the weekly prayer gathering information.

Healthy Aging

You know that aging will likely cause wrinkles and gray hair, but do you know how aging will affect your health? Don't get discouraged as you read this. Many people live long, healthy, productive lives as they age. They travel, spend more time with their grandchildren and spend many hours on fulfilling hobbies. To do that requires effort on their part to lay the foundation for a healthy, older life.

These changes naturally occur in your body as you age: Blood vessels and arteries in the cardiovascular system stiffen causing your heart to work harder to pump blood through them. Bones tend to shrink in size and density, weakening them and making them more susceptible to fracture. Age-related structural changes in the large intestine can result in more constipation in older adults. Contributing factors include a lack of exercise, a low-fiber diet, and lack of sufficient fluids.

Your bladder becomes less elastic as you age, resulting in the need to urinate more frequently. Weakening of bladder muscles and pelvic floor muscles may cause you to lose bladder control (urinary incontinence). Men may have an enlarged or inflamed prostate causing difficulty emptying the bladder and may also experience incontinence.

Your brain also undergoes changes as you age that may have minor effects on your memory and thinking skills. Healthy older adults might forget familiar names and words, or they may find it more difficult to multitask. Your eyesight also changes with age. You may have difficulty focusing on objects that are close up. You may become sensitive to glare and have trouble adapting to different levels of light. Driving at night can become more difficult. Aging can also affect your eye's lens, causing clouded vision (cataracts). Your hearing might diminish causing difficulty with high frequencies or following a conversation in a crowded room. There will be changes with your gums, skin, and how your body burns calories. Your metabolism slows down as you age. The best way to stall these changes is to make a conscious lifestyle adjustment.

Avoid cigarette smoking, vaping and tobacco use of any kind; Limit alcohol consumption to no more than one beverage per day; Exercise regularly, being sure to incorporate weight-training, aerobic and balance activities; Eat a healthy diet that limits packaged and processed foods and prioritizes plant-based foods, lean protein and healthy fats; Maintain a weight that's healthy for you; Get enough sleep; Practice stress management techniques; Get regular medical checkups; Pay attention to any physical limitations, such as difficulty walking or problems with balance. Seek care before issues severely affect your life.

You can't stop the aging process, but you can make choices that improve your ability to maintain an active life, to do the things you enjoy, and to spend time with loved ones.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

If your NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION involves moving, selling, or buying a new home, call Pat, because he has the experience, education, and technical ability to guarantee your success.

Pat has gone the extra mile to earn his BA, GRI, CLIMS, SRS, ABR, PSA, and RENE!!

Does the realtor you may be considering possess those qualifications?

If NOT... WHY wouldn't you call your fellow Parishioner? You NEED to CALL PAT!
