HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

—The Resurrection— THE GREATEST OF MIRACLES

With You,
nothing is lost;
You are my hope.

Pope Francis

"Do not abandon yourselves to despair.

We are the Easter people and Alleluia is our song."

- St. John Paul II

Father in heaven, may the faith You have given us in Your Son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of Your Kingdom.

May Your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, Your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To You our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

An Easter Message from our Pastor, Fr. Eli St. Fort

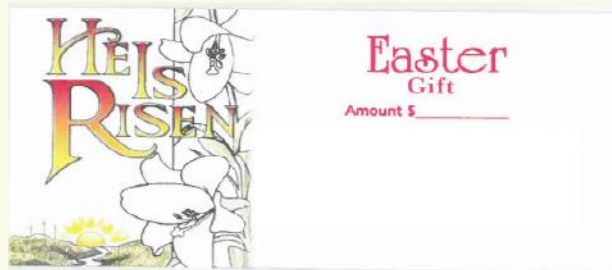

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Once again we are celebrating the most important feast in the lives of all Christians - the Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord.

This is the time for us to rejoice in the meaning of the Resurrection - the knowledge that Christ has risen and the promise that we, too, will share in His glorious Resurrection.

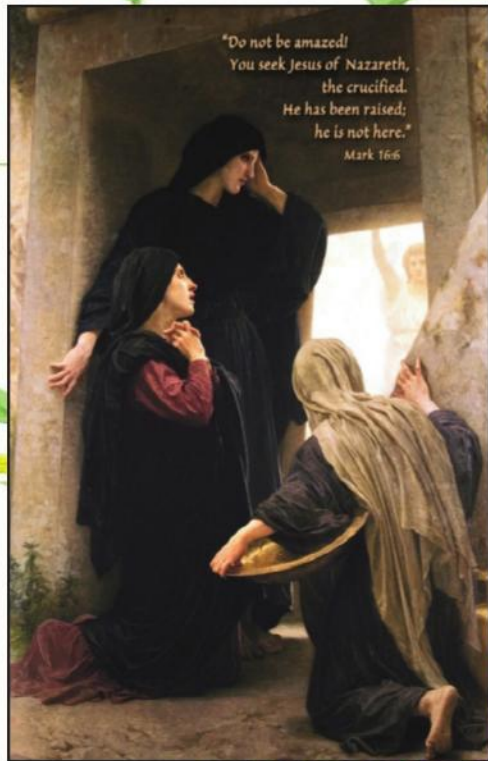

In this Jubilee Year, Pilgrims of Hope we, your parish priests, deacon and staff, wish you a Holy and Happy Easter!

An Easter Gift to the Parish

Envelopes for an Easter Gift to the parish are available in the church pews and on the tables by the church doors. Remember your parish at Easter. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated. May God bless you and your family.

Easter Prayer

Blessed are You,
Creator God,
for the salvation of Christ,
which has dawned upon us
and set us free
from the darkness of sin and death.

Today the sorrow of the Cross has been consumed by the bright promise of the empty tomb.

Christ is Risen from the dead,
and all creation thrills and basks
in the light of Your victorious love.

All praise and glory be Yours through the Risen Christ and the Holy Spirit
forever and ever.
Amen.

The Empty Tomb Changed the World

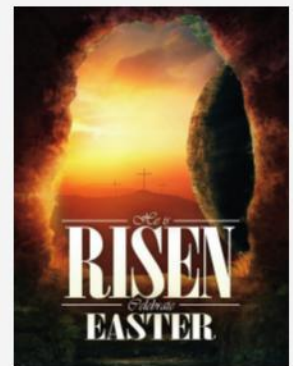

The significance of the empty tomb cannot be overstated. It is the foundation of our faith and the source of our hope. As Catholics, our actions would be in vain if the tomb was not empty. But it was, and this is what gives our faith its purpose and our hope its substance. We are called to live out this faith and pass it on to others, just as previous generations have done for over two thousand years.

As Catholics, Easter is not a one-day event but a life-changing reality that transforms our perspective and gives us hope to be with the Lord for all eternity. Our faith is not fantasy but reality, a reality that we get to live and share with our family and those we interact with on a daily basis. The Church affirms this reality by inviting us to celebrate the Octave of Easter (8 days ending on Divine Mercy Sunday) and the Easter Season (50 days ending on Pentecost).

As we read in the Gospel, Mary Magdalene was the first to witness the empty tomb, the first to enter into it. St. Thomas Aquinas called her the "Apostle of the Apostles." Imagine sharing the Good News of Jesus' Resurrection with His very own followers!

This Easter, may we worship, thank the Lord, celebrate, and be filled with the joy of Jesus, just like the first witnesses of His resurrection did. May the powerful truth of this greatest of Feasts pour into the ordinary moments of our lives and sanctify them. The details of how we live the faith matter, for from our heart spills out our love, belief, and faith in Jesus, which we then share with our family, friends and the greater community.

The tomb is empty, just as He said! Have a blessed and joyful Easter! By Emily Jaminet

Mother's Day Novena

SUNDAY, MAY 11th is Mother's Day. A special day that we honor and celebrate our mothers, living or deceased. Our parish will celebrate a novena of Masses to the names listed in our Mother's Day Novena Envelopes. The envelopes can be found in the church pews and on the tables by the church doors. Remember and honor our mothers by listing their names in the Mother's Day Novena Envelopes. You may drop the envelopes in the collection basket or submit to the parish office.

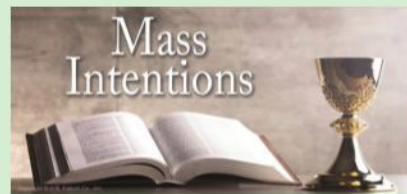

FEAST OF FAITH

The Eucharist: Food for Resurrection

How do we celebrate Easter, the greatest of our Christian feasts? By doing what we do every Sunday and every day: celebrating the Mass. On the first Easter, as the heartbroken disciples walked the road to Emmaus, the Lord was with them but they did not realize it. They only recognized Him "in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 22:35).

It is the same for us. In the Mass—the breaking of the bread—we meet the risen Lord together. We meet Him in each other—for by our baptism into His death and resurrection, we have become members of one body, the Body of Christ. We meet Him in His Word—in the liturgy. The scriptures are proclaimed to us, that they might take root and grow in us. And we meet Him in a special way in the Eucharist, the sacrament of his Body and Blood, which is food for resurrection: "whoever eats this bread will live forever" (John 6:51). The Lord is risen indeed, and it is the Risen One who truly presides at this and every Eucharist.

The Resurrection and the Gift of Wholeness

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we are reminded of the powerful truth at the heart of our faith—life triumphs over death, hope over despair, and healing over brokenness. Christ’s victory over the grave is not just a moment in history; it is a living promise for all believers.

Through His resurrection, Jesus offers us more than eternal life. He invites us into a life of renewal—spiritually, emotionally, and physically. Scripture reminds us that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19), a sacred space where the presence of God dwells. Honoring our health is one way we honor God.

As your Parish Nurse, I see daily how deeply connected our faith is to our well-being. When we nurture our spiritual lives through prayer, Scripture, and community, we often experience peace, reduced stress, and a greater sense of purpose. These are not just emotional benefits—they have real effects on our physical health. Studies consistently show that faith-based living is linked to stronger immune systems, lower blood pressure, and better mental health.

The resurrection also offers hope for healing. Whether facing illness, grief, addiction, or fatigue, we can find strength in knowing that Christ brings new life to even the most challenging circumstances. Just as He rose from the grave, we too can rise—day by day—with God’s help, toward wholeness.

Let us be encouraged to live lives that reflect the fullness of Christ’s resurrection. This means caring for our bodies, seeking balance in our daily lives, and leaning into God’s grace in all seasons. Good health is not just the absence of disease; it is the presence of peace, purpose, and spiritual vitality.

May this Easter season renew your heart, strengthen your body, and refresh your spirit.
