HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Rejoice in the Resurrection

Rejoice in God's Mercy

"On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy."

(Jesus to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, Diary, paragraph #699)

Jesus, I Trust in You!

Eternal God,
in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of Your compassion inexhaustible,
look kindly upon us and
increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent,
but with great confidence
submit ourselves to Your holy will which is Love
and Mercy itself.
Amen

The Feast of Mercy - A Day of Extraordinary Grace

The First Sunday after Easter

In a series of revelations to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord repeatedly called for the celebration of the Feast of Mercy on the first Sunday after Easter. He promised an ocean of graces to be poured upon the world. Today, we know this feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

"I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy" (299).

Every family needs God's mercy. Lenten prayers, fasts, alms giving, and good deeds afford us the opportunity to prepare well for extraordinary graces on Divine Mercy Sunday.

"No soul that has called upon My mercy has ever been disappointed or brought to shame" (1541).

Jesus to St. Faustina:

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet" (699).

St. Maria Faustina Kowalska
1905 - 1938

"Ordinarily, only the sacrament of Baptism effects in the soul the 'complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.' Reception of the Eucharist in a state of grace ordinarily remits only venial sin, while strengthening the soul against both venial and mortal sin (Catechism, 1394-1395). But on Mercy Sunday reception of Holy Communion worthily and with trust in God's Mercy pours out upon the soul a complete renewal of baptismal grace." - Rev. Ignacy Rozycki, STD, Former Member of the Holy See's International Theological Commission

Turn to the Lord with trust for all of your needs, spiritual as well as temporal. Ask for much and join the hundreds of thousands that have received hope, healing and answers to many prayers on this special day. Rejoice in the Resurrection. Rejoice in God's Mercy.

How to Receive the Graces of Divine Mercy Sunday

To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy.

By these conditions, our Lord is emphasizing the value of confession and Holy Communion as miracles of mercy. The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living God, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts.

In addition, if we want to receive mercy we must be merciful. Our Lord told St. Faustina:

"Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy" (742).

A Well of Mercy

How I wish I could be Thomas at the moment when Jesus says, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side” (John 20:27). Thomas touched Divine Mercy when he touched Christ’s side. Jesus invited him to put his hand into the very wound from which blood and water had flowed.

Jesus’ wounds have been transformed. They have been redeemed. They are not simply flesh wounds. They are the wounds of redemption and salvation. They are the wounds of love and mercy, from which grace is poured out to the world.

To St. Faustina, Jesus said, “From all My wounds, like from streams, mercy flows for souls, but the wound in My Heart is the fountain of unfathomable mercy. From this fountain spring all graces for souls.... I desire greatly to pour them out upon souls...” (Diary of St. Faustina, #1190).

What surge of love Thomas must have felt as he experienced this mercy! What an intimate encounter he must have had with our Lord! Jesus’ glorified wounds are not only transformed, they are transformative. They are not only redeemed, they are redemptive. Thomas’ heart must have been on fire as He realized the depths of Christ’s love and experienced the transformation and redemption Christ died to give us. With what passion must he have proclaimed, “My Lord and my God!” (John 20:28)

As with Thomas, often a sudden realization of God’s great love and mercy incites our worship and cracks our hearts open as well. By accepting the invitation to bring our doubts, pain, woundedness, and sinfulness to Him, approaching Him and seeing what He has done for us, surrendering ourselves to Him as we do, He can touch our hearts. It is communion with His limitless love that transforms us when we receive Our Lord and offer our hearts as His abode.

In a very powerful way, the wound in Christ’s side is the very passageway we are invited to travel to encounter His Heart. His wounds cannot be separated from Divine Mercy, for it is through His suffering and the giving of Himself, through His death and His wounds, especially the wound created by the spear driven into His Heart, that His merciful, redemptive work was released.

We can no longer physically put our hand into Christ’s wound as Thomas did. We are called to believe without seeing or touching. But we do have the gift of Divine Mercy and the gift of the Eucharist, in which we can have an equally powerful experience of Christ’s love and mercy, of redemption and transformation. This Divine Mercy Sunday, let us come to Our Lord. Let us pray to Him and venerate Him. Let us receive Him into our bodies. And let us cry out in worship and awe together with Thomas, “My Lord and my God!” By Kimberly Andrich

Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great Easter traditions is “mystagogy,” an ancient word meaning “reflection on the mysteries.” It is a style of catechesis, or passing on the faith. People who have shared an experience, in this case those who have been baptized at Easter, are urged to recall their experience, reflect on its meaning, and apply their insights to their new way of life.

There is an aspect of an experience that is simply not available until you’ve had it. For example, you may think you know weddings inside out; you’ve been to dozens, seen hundreds in the movies or on television, but until you’ve said “I do” to another, there is a certain knowledge unavailable to you. Those who go down into the waters of baptism as adults have similar experiences; they have all taken baths before, but not like this one! Mystagogy helps such persons to uncover the deep meaning of the experience, their sense of a new beginning, of God’s abundant love, of forgiveness, of community.

It takes time for the power of the Easter Vigil to work its wonders for us. Those who are newly baptized are called “neophytes,” meaning “newly planted.” The tender buds of spring need care and nurturing, and our new brothers and sisters need your prayer and your faithful example.
