HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday	7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection.

We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy.

*You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain.
You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.*

*Father,
we thank you in advance,
for you are our only Refuge.
We ask this through Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.*

Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation) program will resume Monday September 14 in the Parish Hall at 7pm. OCIA is a process designed to welcome new members into the faith through education, spiritual formation and the celebration of the sacraments. It prepared individuals for the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and first holy communion which are essential for full membership in the Catholic Church. The program also fosters a sense of community as individuals journey together in faith.

If you have not completed your sacraments of initiation (baptism, confirmation, or first holy communion) or would like to explore the Catholic faith further, please join us on Monday September 14th at 7pm in the Parish Hall.

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.

MATTHEW 16:16

The Chair of Peter

Word was spreading and people everywhere were talking about Jesus. Who was He? He is somehow John the Baptist. No, He's Elijah. No, Jeremiah. No, He's a prophet. Ancient us...are we really that different? We're still arguing. Jesus was a prophet; Jesus was God but not really man; Jesus was man but not really God; Jesus was just a really nice guy that lived a long time ago.

Who is Jesus? Peter knew. Jesus is "the Christ, the Son of the living God." "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father."

God knows us so well. He knew that the years leading up to His second coming would be much like the final days of His first: full of disputes, disagreements, debates, each participant certain of his own position. Who do we believe? How do we know what's true? God knew we needed an authority to trust, so through his Son, He left us a gift - the Papacy.

When Jesus promised that Peter would be our rock, our authority, he became our first Pope, and we can trace that line of authority from Peter right up to Pope Leo XIV today. We look to the chair of Peter not because he himself was so wise but rather because God promised to reveal Truth to this chair, and God keeps His promises.

Throughout the centuries, saints, including Peter, have filled that Holy Chair, but so have imperfect, even corrupt, men. Still, the Chair and the Church endure. As He promised, "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it," and God's promises will always triumph over the lies of man.

We don't trust the authority of the Church because the guys in charge of it are perfect, but rather because He who established it is indeed perfect. Our ever-faithful God promised that the successors of Peter would hold Truth. It's not the man himself who is infallible but rather the position, the Holy Chair, the Holy See. When our Popes speak "ex cathedra," from the chair, to the Universal Church on issues of faith and morals, we believe that he is being guided by the Holy Spirit and cannot make a mistake. That is God's promise, and that is why we can look to the Holy See and trust it.

Not only can we trust our Holy Father's authority, but also are we called to, especially when that wisdom challenges our own. It is not a blind following that ignores or dismisses the missteps of man. Instead, it is a humble following that recognizes an eternal wisdom, understanding, and authority greater than our own. Why did Jesus leave us our Church, our Pope, our earthly authority? Because he knows us so well. By Pamela Kavanaugh

Saint of the Week

SAINT MONICA (332-387)

August 27

She had smiles for the neighbors, though her husband found her religion and the charity it inspired annoying. She made tearful prayers in private for a son, outwardly self-assured but, as his mother knew, inwardly restless, and whose girlfriend of a dozen years had borne his child out of wedlock. Though not the first or last such mother and son, Monica and Augustine are the Church's most famous, so we keep their feast days back to back, with Monica's, fittingly, first. To Rome she followed Augustine, then to Milan, where years of prayer—and nagging—finally bore fruit in his conversion by Saint Ambrose. For six months, mother and son enjoyed the blessing of rediscovering each other. Just in time! On the way home to North Africa, Monica took sick and died near Rome. No child who has mourned a parent can read, unmoved, Augustine's tender account, in his Confessions, of Monica's last days. At this time of the year, when parents watch apprehensively as children leave for school, may Monica's perseverance and Augustine's long-prayed-for conversion ease anxiety and kindle hope. —Peter Scagnelli

OUR LADY OF CZESTOCHOWA

August 26

The creation of this Black Madonna in Czestochowa, Poland, also known as Our Lady of Jasna Gora, is attributed by legend to Saint Luke. It bears scars and gashes that have been inflicted on it over centuries of sometimes violent events in Polish history.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
