HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Pledge of Commitment

To Protect and Heal God's Creation

We have come to renew our covenant with God and with one another in Christ Jesus, our Lord. We have come to help protect God's creation.

We have come as followers of Jesus to commit ourselves anew to one another and to heal injustice and poverty.

We have come to stand together against all threats to life.

We have come to discover some new beauty every day in God's creation: the sunrise and sunset, birds, flowers and trees, rainbows in the sky, the stars, the many forms of life in the forest.

We have come to listen to the "music of the universe"- water flowing over rocks, the wind, trees bending in the wind, raindrops pattering the roof.

We will remember always that God speaks to us through the beauty of his creation, and we will try our best to answer God's call to reverence all that he has created.

Endless Summer Tips Preventing Dehydration Stay Ahead of Dehydration By Your Parish Nurses

Dehydration is more common than we think, especially among older adults, people in hospitals, and those living in long-term care. It can lead to fatigue, confusion, dizziness, infections, falls, and even higher risk of death. Research shows that "signs of adult dehydration are subtle and unreliable," meaning we often don't notice it until we feel unwell. Dehydration isn't just "not drinking enough water." It is a complex body imbalance that affects how your cells, blood, and organs function. While there is no universally accepted definition of dehydration, drinking water regularly, even before you feel thirsty, is one of the best ways to support energy, digestion, and mental clarity. Here are simple tips to keep us hydrated:

- ✓ Thirst is a late warning sign: Sip water throughout the day, especially during prayer, meals, or medication times. Keep a water bottle nearby and sip throughout the day.
- ✓ Dehydration in adults can be quiet. Look for: dry mouth, headache, feeling "off," tired, or confused, dark urine, dizziness when standing
- ✓ Be mindful during illness: Vomiting, diarrhea, fever, or heavy sweating can cause both water and salt loss. Use electrolyte drinks or oral rehydration solutions when needed.
- ✓ Support One Another: Check on older family members, neighbors, and friends. Many forget to drink or don't feel thirsty. A simple glass of water offered with kindness can be an act of mercy.

Prayer for Wellness

"Lord, You are the source of living water. Refresh our bodies, renew our minds, and restore our spirits. Help us care for ourselves and one another with compassion and wisdom. Amen."

"He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside quiet waters, He refreshes my soul." - Psalm 23:2-3

Good health is a daily blessing that requires daily practice.
Blessings of health and peace to you and your family.

OCIA is a process designed to welcome new members into the faith through education, spiritual formation and the celebration of the sacraments. It prepared individuals for the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and first holy communion which are essential for full membership in the Catholic Church. The program also fosters a sense of community as individuals journey together in faith.

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly

MATTHEW 16:21

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time The Eyes of a Child

I frequently see signs on churches inviting everyone to come. Often they advertise that they are a contemporary, casual church. One thing that concerns me is that they do not add “challenging” to that description. Some people try to teach that since Jesus is risen from the dead, we should also be able to live that way: Rejoicing, but never sorrowing. But if we preach resurrection without the cross, we are acting like Peter in the Gospel.

Peter had just proclaimed that Jesus was the Messiah, but he failed to understand that Jesus’ mission was not to bring wealth and glory to Israel. Jesus knew that being messiah required him to give his life for all people. In a sense, Peter was tempting Jesus to avoid the painful death and use his divine power to bring prosperity. Like Satan’s temptations in the desert, he wanted Jesus to take the easy way to glory.

Instead, Jesus challenges us to deny ourselves. Today this phrase is not very popular with those who say we should be free to satisfy all our desires, or with motivational speakers who say that everyone is able to achieve financial success and live a comfortable life. As long as we center our lives on our own pleasure and comfort, we are rejecting the cross. To deny oneself means to choose God’s will over our own. It means to be willing to suffer for being honest. It means giving God the first place in our lives. It means we get more joy from serving others than serving ourselves. This is what Paul is talking about in the second reading when he says to offer ourselves as a “living sacrifice.” Or as Jesus says, we lose our life for his sake, only to find it in loving and serving him.

That is one reason I like the image of God as father. Parents will lose much of their freedom—and much sleep—when they bring a child into the world. But they find a new joy in the eyes of that child. We are all called to lose our selfish lives and find the joy of living for Jesus.

Tom Schmidt

Saint of the Week

Saint Gregory the Great (540-604)
September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, “Gregorian” chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory’s legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory’s administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the Church’s material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the “Gregorian Canon” (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated “the Great,” a fitting epitaph. Peter Scagnelli

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.
