HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection.

We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy.

You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain.
You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.

Father,

we thank you in advance,
for you are our only Refuge.

We ask this through Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God,

forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

BIBLE CLASS

BIBLE STUDY BEGINS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2026

Our parish Bible Study begins on Friday, October 9, 2026.
We'll be studying Angels in the Bible.

Angels are invisible, spiritual beings, and we find them throughout the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. We study angels for what we can learn about them in themselves, but more importantly, for what angels can teach us about our relationship with God. In Scripture, angels perform a lot of different jobs or ministries. Sometimes they even seem to be interchangeable with God himself, as we see in the accounts of angels who appeared to Hagar (Gen 21:15-21); Abram (Gen 22:11-12); Jacob (Gen 31:11-13); and Moses (Ex 3:2-6). Angels can be messengers of joy and guidance (announcing Jesus' birth to Mary!); adoring beings before God's Throne (Revelation 4-5); spirits governing the elements and nature; instruments of God's Judgment; and our own guardians. During each session, we'll read about, reflect on, and discuss the different functions angels play in the Bible, and how angels help us better understand our relationship with God.

So we hope you'll join us. We meet in the Chapel of Holy Spirit on Friday mornings, from 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. The study will last 6 or 7 weeks, and the cost of the study is $20, payable on the first day of class in cash or check to Holy Spirit, and which includes the cost of the course book you'll receive at that time.

If you'd like to join us, please email me, Deacon Ken Vianale, at kvianale@holyspiritlantana.com, or you can simply call the parish office at 561-585-5970 to leave your name and email address so I can get back in touch with you. Looking forward to studying with you! -Deacon Ken Vianale, Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

VOCATION CHALICE

Vocation Chalice Ministry is an effort to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Each Sunday after communion, the family scheduled will receive the Vocation Chalice which has been set aside for this purpose. They receive a blessing and take the chalice home, putting it in a place of honor. Each day of the week, the family prays for an increase in and perseverance of vocations.

The Vocation Chalice will be handed on Sunday at the 12:00noon Mass. If you are interested in bringing the chalice home, call the parish office during office hours or you may send an e-mail to our parish e-mail.

Patriot Day

Here, in this place of remembrance, I would ask everyone together, each in his or her own way, to spend a moment in silence and prayer. Let us implore from on high the gift of commitment to the cause of peace. Peace in our homes, our families, our schools and our communities. Peace in all those places where war never seems to end. Peace for those faces which have known nothing but pain. Peace throughout this world which God has given us as the home of all and a home for all.

Simply PEACE.

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Listening to the Lord's Voice

One of the most exciting things in my adult life has been seeing family members give themselves to God and His Church. I have two nephews in seminary, a niece finishing up two years of ministering to the poor on the streets of Denver, a nephew who works at a church and other nieces who are active in youth ministry. My heart swells with joy and pride at seeing them know, love and serve our Lord.

Over the past two years, my son has been participating in youth group and service activities as well. We have been blessed to have a NET Discipleship Team with us during that time and it has made a tremendous impact on him. He has begun watching Fr. Mike Schmitz and Bishop Barron videos and even binge watched all five seasons of The Chosen of his own accord. But even more surprisingly, he recently told us he had been feeling a call to the priesthood!

Up until now, when we asked him what he wanted to do when he grew up, he gave us a typical teenage answer. "I want to be a you-tuber, and if that falls through, a lawyer." Then, since our family has had its fair share of medical issues, he began considering becoming a doctor. But one day, after he got grossed out by my husband and I smooching in the kitchen, I jokingly responded, "Well, you need to learn how to be affectionate somehow." And he responded, "Not if I'm going to be a priest!"

God has His timing and His ways. His voice is like a gentle whisper that burns within our souls. Fittingly, today's Psalm reminds us: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Oh, how easy it is to drown Him out! How much more comfortable it is to fill our days with endless activity and ceaseless noise instead of sitting still in the silence to hear Him speak to us. How I wish our hearts would long to hear His voice! For those who seek to hear it, will.

We may not all hear the call to priesthood or religious life or missionary work, but we will hear Him calling us to sainthood. We may not hear Him asking us to write or speak eloquent words, but we will hear Him calling us to love Him and our neighbor. We may not hear Him asking us to die for Him, but we will hear Him asking us to serve Him with our lives.

What do you hear our Lord asking of you? By Tami Urcia

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the early years of the church, most people never availed themselves of once-in-a-lifetime penance. Yet penitents were highly visible. They wore distinctive garments or chains, and they were relegated to special zones in the church. They might be dismissed from the Sunday assembly after the Word, forbidden to join in the Prayer of the Faithful or the Eucharist. This dismissal was done with great affection and tenderness as the bishop laid his hands on the heads of the sinners. During Lent almost everyone would identify with penitents by clothing, insignia, or by following the penitents' regular diet. Rather than sit in judgment over them, the church desired to intercede for them before the Lord. "Let Mother Church weep for you and wash away your sins with her tears," said St. Ambrose to his penitents in Milan. Ambrose liked to think of them as Jonah in the whale, meditating on his errors. In a letter to his sister he said that Jonah is also a sign of Christ in the tomb, and so he had great faith in the penitents' future proclamation of the Resurrection with their reclaimed status in the assembly. —Rev. James Field

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
