HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday	7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m.

BIBLE STUDY BEGINS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2026

Our parish Bible Study begins on Friday, October 9, 2026.

We'll be studying Angels in the Bible.

Angels are invisible, spiritual beings, and we find them throughout the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. We study angels for what we can learn about them in themselves, but more importantly, for what angels can teach us about our relationship with God. In Scripture, angels perform a lot of different jobs or ministries. Sometimes they even seem to be interchangeable with God himself, as we see in the accounts of angels who appeared to Hagar (Gen 21:15-21); Abram (Gen 22:11-12); Jacob (Gen 31:11-13); and Moses (Ex 3:2-6). Angels can be messengers of joy and guidance (announcing Jesus' birth to Mary!); adoring beings before God's Throne (Revelation 4-5); spirits governing the elements and nature; instruments of God's Judgment; and our own guardians. During each session, we'll read about, reflect on, and discuss the different functions angels play in the Bible, and how angels help us better understand our relationship with God.

So we hope you'll join us. We meet in the Chapel of Holy Spirit on Friday mornings, from 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. The study will last 6 or 7 weeks, and the cost of the study is $20, payable on the first day of class in cash or check to Holy Spirit, and which includes the cost of the course book you'll receive at that time.

If you'd like to join us, please email me, Deacon Ken Vianale, at kvianale@holyspiritlantana.com, or you can simply call the parish office at 561-585-5970 to leave your name and email address so I can get back in touch with you. Looking forward to studying with you!

-Deacon Ken Vianale, Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

Compassionate Care Health & Wellness Ministry

Back to School Health & Immunity How to Strengthen Your Immune System By Your Parish Nurses

As students return to school, support their health with good sleep, balanced meals, hydration, and routines that reduce stress. Encourage handwashing, healthy snacks, and open conversations about emotional well-being. Teachers and parents/guardians also need care; we can lift them in our prayer. With these daily challenges, and daily living, we need to strengthen our immune system. Our immune system is an incredible, complex network that protects us from infections, heals injuries, and keeps your body functioning well. While there's no magic pill or instant way to "boost" immunity, research shows that healthy daily habits help our immune system work at its best. A strong immune system isn't built overnight. It is supported through consistent, balanced living. Scientists also emphasize that immunity is a system, not a single organ. It needs harmony, nourishment, rest, and protection. Although researchers are still studying exactly how lifestyle affects immune strength, many healthy-living strategies are known to support overall wellness and may help your immune system function more effectively.

- ✓ Choose nutritious foods and supplements: Eating well fuels your immune cells. Fruits, vegetables, lean proteins, whole grains, and healthy fats provide vitamins and minerals that your body needs to defend itself. Nutrients like vitamin C, vitamin D, zinc, and antioxidants support immune function. Take supplements with zinc, selenium, iron, copper, folic acid, and Vitamins A, B6, C and E if deficient, which can alter cellular immune responses.
- ✓ Regular movement helps regulate immune responses and lowers your risk of illness. Aim for moderate activity, like brisk walking, for at least 150 minutes per week. Exercise also improves sleep and reduces stress, both essential for immunity.
- ✓ Maintain a healthy weight: Obesity can weaken immune responses and increase inflammation. Healthy eating and regular activity help support immune balance.
- ✓ Get enough sleep: Sleep is when your body repairs itself and produces important immune cells. Adults generally need 7–8 hours of consistent sleep each night. Poor sleep makes you more vulnerable to infections.
- ✓ Manage Stress: Chronic stress can suppress immune function. Practices like deep breathing, prayer, journaling, and connecting with loved ones help calm the nervous system and support immunity.

Prayer for Wellness

"Dear God, protect our children. Bless and guide all who teach them each and those who care for them to be successful each day. Amen."

"Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praise." – James 5:13

Good health is a daily blessing that requires daily practice.
Blessings of health and peace to you and your family.

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive?

MATTHEW 18:21

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time The Cross of Forgiveness

Why should we forgive those who hurt us? This Sunday's Gospel gives us three reasons: First, because Jesus commands it. Second, because forgiveness is part of loving one another. And third, because we want to be forgiven for our sins.

Obviously, Jesus expects us to forgive one another. In this passage, he commands us to forgive without ceasing, without limit. That might be a challenge for even the most patient people. So, does forgiveness exclude tough love? Does it mean we should let someone hurt us again and again? No. It is possible to forgive someone and also prevent them from hurting us, if we do so with love (the second reason). For example, we can forgive an alcoholic relative but still insist that they seek help. We can forgive a son or daughter who breaks the law but still let them face the consequences so they learn from their mistake. We can forgive a friend who borrows money without paying it back and also refer them to a credit counselor instead of lending them more money. Since forgiveness is part of love, it is also part of tough love.

That leads to the third reason: we forgive because we want to be forgiven. Or more accurately, we forgive because we have been forgiven. Jesus already died for our sins. His resurrection shows us that the Father accepted the sacrifice of his Son Jesus for our sins. If we truly believe that Jesus rose again and that we will rise with him to eternal life despite our sins, how can we refuse to forgive someone who hurts us? When we promise to take up the cross each day and follow him, we must remember why Jesus took the cross and realize that we must forgive as he forgives. That's why the cross is such a powerful symbol. It asks us to accept suffering for Jesus' sake. It reminds us that sometimes the cross is simply about forgiving someone rather than hurting or hating them. If Jesus gave his life to forgive us, are we willing to spread that forgiveness far and wide? By Tom Schmidt

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our national memory will keep September 11 holy for generations to come, as we remember the innocent dead. Our memories of the attack on our nation are intertwined with memories of how we human beings are natural symbol-makers. In one parish, as a candlelight vigil ended, the assembly, without being instructed, took their candles and stood shoulder to shoulder, down the steps and along the city streets for a quarter mile. Slowly, people came out of their houses bearing tapers and candles. In the first hours of crisis, we stood vigil, we prayed from the heart, and we celebrated the human ability to draw light out of terrible darkness.

Stories of that terrible day necessarily drift to tales of heroism, courage, dignity, faith, solidarity, hope, community. The church learned long ago through hard experience that "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." Perhaps the victims of 9/11 have gifts to bring that we are only just discovering as believers in a just and loving God. They are teaching us still, and today is a day for lighting candles at the table and being silent for a moment before the abundance of God's gifts. Today reminds us that we are capable of acts of indescribable beauty even in the face of great evil.—Rev. James Field

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlanta.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
