HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

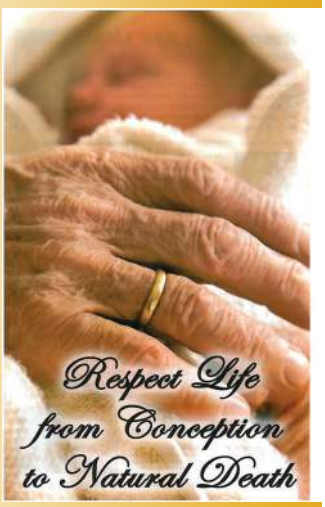
Respect Life Prayer



Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the was the crowning of Your creation. You further ennobled that life when Your Son became one with us in His incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence Your gift of life. To all grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others.
We ask this in Jesus Name.
Amen.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your
faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and
you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who have taught
the hearts of the faithful
by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly
wise and ever rejoice in
His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
where there is hatred let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light And where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it's in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen

BIBLE STUDY

BEGINS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2026

Angels In The Bible

Angels are invisible, spiritual beings, and we find them throughout Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. We study angels for what we can learn about them in themselves, but more importantly, for what angels can teach us about our relationship with God. In Scripture, angels perform a lot of different jobs or ministries. Sometimes they even seem to be interchangeable with God himself, as we see in the accounts of angels who appeared to Hagar (Gen 21:15-21); Abram (Gen 22:11-12); Jacob (Gen 31:11-13); and Moses (Ex 3:2-6). Angels can be messengers of joy and guidance (announcing Jesus' birth to Mary!); adoring beings before God's Throne (Revelation 4-5); spirits governing the elements and nature; instruments of God's Judgment; and our own guardians. During each session, we'll read about, reflect on, and discuss the different functions angels play in the Bible, and how angels help us better understand our relationship with God.

So we hope you'll join us. We meet in the Chapel of Holy Spirit on Friday mornings, from 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. The study will last 6 or 7 weeks, and the cost of the study is $20, payable on the first day of class in cash or check to Holy Spirit, and which includes the cost of the course book you'll receive at that time.

If you'd like to join us, please email me, Deacon Ken Vianale, at kvianale@holyspiritlantana.com, or you can simply call the parish office at 561-585-5970 to leave your name and email address so I can get back in touch with you. Looking forward to studying with you!

The Month of October, Rosary Month

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Using beads for prayer and meditation is an ancient custom, found in many cultures and religions. The Christian rosary dates from the twelfth century, when it provided a way for ordinary Christians to learn about the lives of Jesus and Mary. Alan de la Roche, a fifteenth-century Dominican, preferred "Psalter of Our Lady" to "rosary." This fitting name recalls an explanation of the devotion's origin. Unable to read the one hundred fifty psalms that formed the Church's "official" daily prayer, medieval Christians substituted first one hundred fifty Pater Nosters, and later one hundred fifty Ave Marias. By meditating on the various mysteries of the rosary while repeating these simple prayers, the faithful could immerse themselves in the whole mystery of the Incarnation and the Resurrection.

The dedication of October to the Blessed Virgin Mary is an appropriate reminder of this venerable form of prayer. Faithful Christians everywhere continue to meditate on the mysteries of the rosary, praying in groups or alone. Why not take advantage of this season to renew your acquaintance with the rosary?

The Beauty of Life

Lizzie Pope, 13 years old

A human life is not yours to take,
Life or death is nobody's decision to make.

Listening to their little hearts beat,
And seeing their little hands and feet.

A human life is not yours to take,
A tiny heart, you choose to break.

Soft bare skin you will never feel,
With a mother's mind unable to heal.

A human life is not yours to take,
The child's faint heartbeat, is not fake.

A quiet laugh and a heartwarming smile,
The things you want to last for awhile.

A human life is not yours to take,
Seeing their first steps they make.

Endless love and constant care,
To a child that will never be aware.

Because a human life is not yours to take,
So I take a stand against that great mistake.

Never being able to hear that innocent voice,
Should never be someone's freedom of choice.

The Gift of the Mass

In the Gospel of Luke Jesus says, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. For I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it." (Luke 10:23-24) We do not live in Jesus' time. We have access to some incredible multimedia and visual representations of what life could have been like during Jesus' life and ministry. Having those visuals can be a light shining into a dark space. They offer a brief look at his time: the people, the clothing, the food, the homes, etc. God made us visual people as well as auditory people, so these visual opportunities can certainly enhance our faith experience. Not everyone has the opportunity to travel to the Holy Land. TV shows and documentaries are excellent resources which help to bring the time of Jesus alive in our imaginations.

Just as there is the temptation to romanticize the past in historical fiction novels, we might have the temptation to think that what Jesus said and did are things that happened, "back then." There is a very real and important difference between watching a show about Jesus and participating in Mass.

When we are at Mass, we aren't there to watch. The word "attend" is even problematic. The Mass isn't a concert or lecture. It's the real and true participation in the heavenly banquet we all hope to participate in for all eternity. We gather around an altar. Altars aren't for eating, they're for sacrifice. Jesus is our paschal lamb, He is the perfect sacrifice which restores us to right relationship with the Father. Since God operates outside of space and time, this perfect sacrifice of Jesus is continually offered for the redemption of humanity. We participate in this eternal sacrifice and communion with the Father when we gather to share the Eucharist.

During the Offertory prayers, though the priest is speaking, he is offering the bread and wine on behalf of the whole community. He asks the Holy Spirit to come transform the gifts we offer. This is one reason why the gifts are brought forward from within the community to the altar.

Many generations have desired to see what we see, to hear what we hear, every time we come to Mass. Many still today long to have free and easy access to regular liturgical practice and cannot. What Jesus said and did isn't just something that happened long ago. He lives in each baptized member of the Body of Christ. He is present to us, speaking to us, at every single Mass we partake in. There is nothing on earth that can replace Jesus' true Presence in the Eucharist. By Kate Taliaferro

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI (1182-1226)
October 4

When Franco Zeffirelli's Brother Sun, Sister Moon was released (1972), people were shocked by the movie's graphic nudity in the dramatic conversion scene. Son of a wealthy merchant, Francis' aimless adolescence ended when a failed military expedition led to his imprisonment and complete breakdown. Once home, Francis rediscovered God in the beauty of nature and the ugliness of human suffering, caring for lepers, praying in the little church of San Damiano, whose crucified Jesus he heard calling, "Repair my house, Francis, which is falling into ruins." Francis sold his possessions—and his father's—to fulfill this command. When his father objected, Francis disrobed: "I return the clothes, your name, and all you gave me: God alone is my Father now." Later, the pope would dream of a ragged friar stretching forth a single hand to prop up the crumbling papal Cathedral of Saint John Lateran. Francis indeed helped rebuild the universal Church, founding the Friars Minor (Franciscans), dying at a young forty-four, bearing the stigmata of the Christ whose living icon he remains—in the Church and far beyond it. —Peter Scagnelli

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and con- solation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtful- ness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your par- ish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
