HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

BIBLE STUDY

FRIDAY

Angels In The Bible

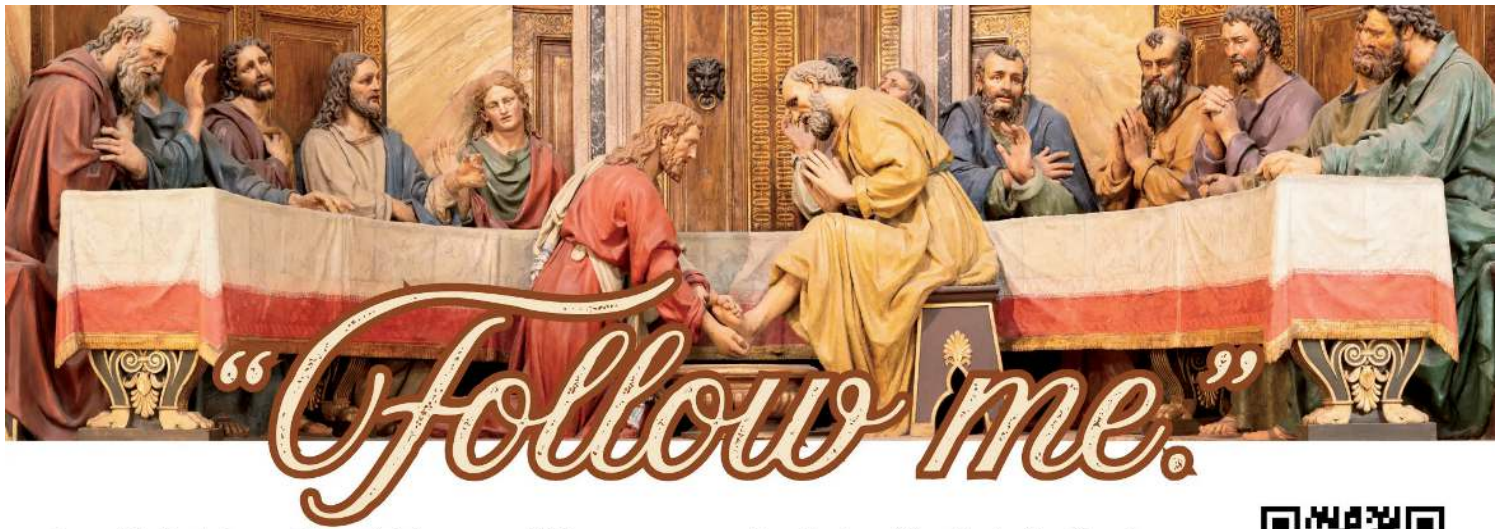

Angels are invisible, spiritual beings, and we find them throughout Bible, from Genesis to Revelation. We study angels for what we can learn about them in themselves, but more importantly, for what angels can teach us about our relationship with God. In Scripture, angels perform a lot of different jobs or ministries. Sometimes they even seem to be interchangeable with God himself, as we see in the accounts of angels who appeared to Hagar (Gen 21:15-21); Abram (Gen 22:11-12); Jacob (Gen 31:11-13); and Moses (Ex 3:2-6). Angels can be messengers of joy and guidance (announcing Jesus' birth to Mary!); adoring beings before God's Throne (Revelation 4-5); spirits governing the elements and nature; instruments of God's Judgment; and our own guardians. During each session, we'll read about, reflect on, and discuss the different functions angels play in the Bible, and how angels help us better understand our relationship with God.

So we hope you'll join us. We meet in the Chapel of Holy Spirit on Friday mornings, from 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. The study will last 6 or 7 weeks, and the cost of the study is $20, payable on the first day of class in cash or check to Holy Spirit, and which includes the cost of the course book you'll receive at that time.

If you'd like to join us, please email me, Deacon Ken Vianale, at kvianale@holyspiritlantana.com, or you can simply call the parish office at 561-585-5970 to leave your name and email address so I can get back in touch with you. Looking forward to studying with you!

-Deacon Ken Vianale, Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

In mid-October, all parishioners will have an opportunity to offer their feedback as part of a consultation to aid Bishop Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez in his leadership of the Diocese of Palm Beach. Part of the process is the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), which will seek to give Bishop Manuel a snapshot of Catholic life here, who the parishioners are, and what is working well or needs attention in parishes. As the bishop explains in a video promoting the DMI, the survey will be available from Oct. 15 to Nov. 24, 2026.

BEHOLD, I HAVE PREPARED MY BANQUET.

MATTHEW 22:4

Wedding Garments and Silence

The parable of the wedding feast can feel really confusing. After the invited guests refuse to come, the king has invitations extended to everyone, even the “bad.” Once they accept the invitation, the king discovers that one of the attendees is not wearing a wedding garment. The man is violently thrown out of the banquet with his hands and feet tied. Why would a king invite someone to come to the feast if he wasn’t going to be accepted? God in this scene might seem like a tyrant who calls people to him and then a moment later rejects them completely.

We might be tempted to let our own wounds impact our image of God, particularly because of how this scene plays out. In our own lives, we may have examples of times when we felt like God was calling us to a particular job or relationship, only to have that thing taken away from us. Our pain and disappointment might lead us to believe that the Lord is a cruel king who invites us to the party just to revel in kicking us out. In those moments of hurt, we may act out against God through sin.

This is not a true image of our loving Creator. In order to understand what Jesus is teaching us about the Father through this parable, we must not overlook two small yet infinitely important aspects of this story. The first is that the custom of the time was that the wedding garment was gifted to each invitee as part of the invitation. The king was not expecting the guests to clothe themselves. Symbolically, this represents the grace and mercy the Lord offers to everyone. Deciding to wear it represents our choice to live a life of faith in communion with God. By refusing to wear the garment, the man was trying to enter God’s kingdom while refusing to live by God’s rules.

The second point is how the king approaches the man. The king doesn’t approach him with judgement, even though he isn’t wearing the wedding garment. The king addresses him as “My friend.” The man is given a chance to explain himself and hopefully even change into the appropriate attire. Yet he responds with only silence. When presented with the opportunity to engage with the king, he says nothing. It is only at this point that the king has no choice but to throw the man out of the wedding feast.

We are all invited to the great feast of the Lord. God Himself freely provides the wedding garment for us to wear, but it is our responsibility to wear it. We are given the grace to know and love God, but we have to make the choice to live our life in accord with God’s will. The great news is, if the Lord ever finds us having gone astray, we can count on him approaching us with compassion. He will greet us as his friend. The question is, will we remain silent or will we accept His rebuke and then change into the garment that makes us fit for the eternal wedding banquet of heaven?

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlanta.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
