HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

St. John Paul II
 Feast Day - October 22nd

"Do Not Be Afraid"

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection.

We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.

Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy.

You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain.
You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.

Father,
we thank you in advance,
for you are our only Refuge.
We ask this through Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

NOVENA

During the month of November, we honor and remember our beloved departed according to our Catholic tradition. A novena of Masses for all departed souls will be celebrated during the month of November. Envelopes to include the names of your deceased loved ones may be found in the vestibule of the church. Our novena of Masses will begin on Monday, November 2nd.

In mid-October, all parishioners will have an opportunity to offer their feedback as part of a consultation to aid Bishop Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez in his leadership of the Diocese of Palm Beach. Part of the process is the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), which will seek to give Bishop Manuel a snapshot of Catholic life here, who the parishioners are, and what is working well or needs attention in parishes. As the bishop explains in a video promoting the DMI, the survey will be available from Oct. 15 to Nov. 24, 2026.

MATTHEW 22:21

Dual Citizenship

“Why are you testing me, you hypocrites?” Jesus says to the Pharisees who came up with their cloying, passive-aggressive question because they “plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech.” They phrase it as if they respected Him, but they are trying to discredit and discard Him. Interestingly, they send some of their followers “with the Herodians,” who were hardly allies of the Pharisees; the Herodians were supportive of the Roman rulers, who installed and protected the Herods. The common cause between them was their sense that Jesus was a threat to their respective power structures.

This shows the dark subtlety of their question about whether taxes should be paid. It is not a question about taxes. In their minds, it is a perfect trap, because they cannot foresee an answer that will not alienate His followers or get Him arrested by the political powers that be. If Jesus says no (or even expresses any anti-Roman sentiment), the Herodians can immediately arrest Him for treason against the emperor. If he says yes, the Pharisees believe He will lose popularity with the Jewish crowds who resent Roman oppression. In their minds, either answer will achieve their malicious goal.

But Jesus calls them out and shines the bright light of truth on their dark plan. With Divine wisdom, He gives an answer they could not have anticipated; an answer that avoids their trap, challenges the Herodians’ allegiance to Rome over spiritual faithfulness, sends the Pharisees scrambling for a new plan, and teaches a lesson. By asking to see the Roman coin and asking whose image is on it, He forces them to participate in the answer: because the coin bears Caesar’s image, it should be repaid to Caesar. But then He ends with the real lesson, which is that we must repay “to God what belongs to God.”

We, as baptized Christians, have a kind of “dual citizenship”—we were born into an earthly nation, and baptized into the heavenly Kingdom. We must live both citizenships with justice and responsibility, giving to each what belongs to each. We contribute to the community in which we live in some way, and pay taxes to the nation we call home. But are we as diligent about contributing to the Kingdom into which we are called and baptized? We must give to God what belongs to God, in whose image we are made. What belongs to Him? Everything. By Kathryn Mulderink

SAINTS ISAAC JOGUES (1560-1646) AND JOHN DE BRÉBEUF (1593-1649) AND THEIR COMPANIONS

October 19

Their mission was to New France, but these missionaries found in present day New York State and the Province of Ontario a world wildly different from the homes they left behind. Six Jesuit priests, Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Charles Garnier, and Noel Chabanel—and Jesuit lay volunteers Rene Goupil and John Lalande—shared the gospel with the Native Americans they met, in languages they painstakingly learned, and through images they creatively adapted to the indigenous cultures (for example, John de Brébeuf’s “’Twas in the Moon of Wintertime: the Huron Carol”). But their evangelization was caught up in turmoil beyond their control: a smallpox epidemic, battles between French and English trading interests—the traders united only by their willingness to exploit the Native Americans—and conflict among the tribes themselves, Huron, Mohawk, Iroquois. The missionaries’ perseverance despite exhausting hardships, their steadfast courage in facing unspeakable tortures, and undaunted love even for those who martyred them, bore fruit, immediately in Kateri Tekakwitha’s sanctity, eventually in the Catholicism that still flourishes in the United States and Canada. —Peter Scagnelli

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and consolation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your parish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.
