HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Masses

Monday - Friday	7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who have taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

HOLY SPIRIT'S 16TH ANNUAL SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS IS COMING SOON!

During the weekend of Saturday, November 21st and Sunday, November 22nd the Religious Education Dept will be handing out the Spirit of Christmas ornaments to all the parishioners who would like to help make this holiday special for the children of our parish, and to help make their holiday wishes come true. The joy this gifting gives to both the children and their families, and the incredible generosity of the Holy Spirit givers is truly what this season is all about; it is magical.

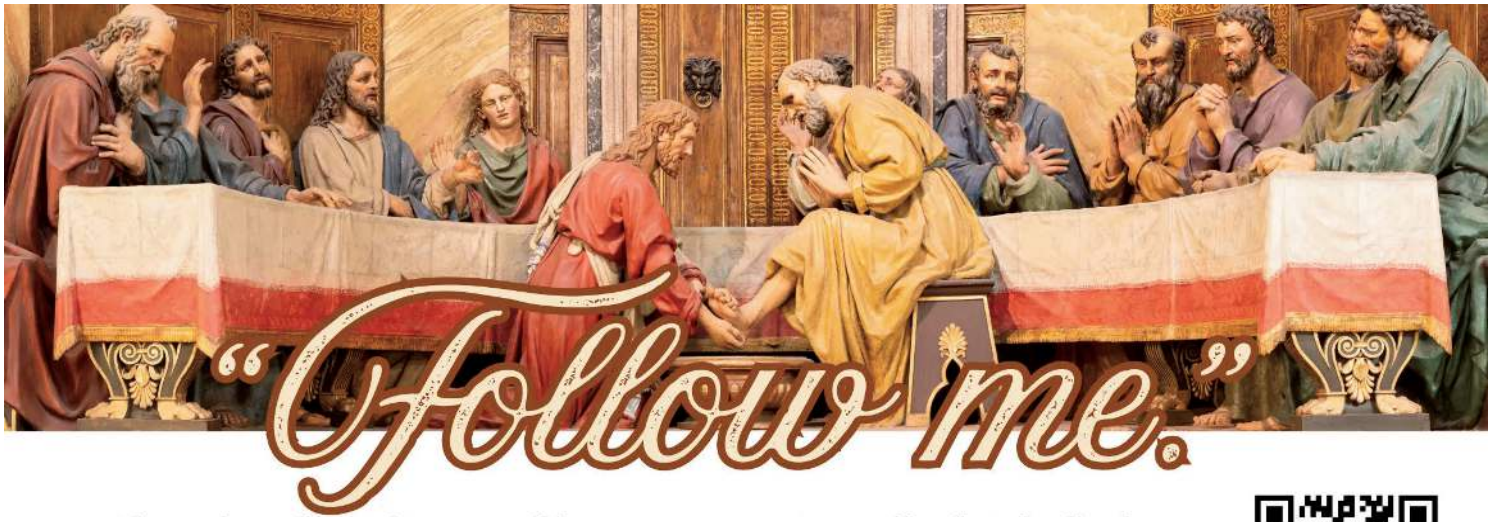

Before and after each Mass, we will be out front handing out the gift ornament requests, and we are looking forward to seeing everyone then. If you should have any questions concerning the Spirit of Christmas event, please contact Patrice Althouse who will be happy to answer any questions or concerns at 561-585-5970.

Thank you in advance to the many parishioners who help make our children's and their families dreams come true.

If you're a parishioner and haven't already taken the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey, NOW is the time! It's the very important first step in HOLY SPIRIT growing in our discipleship. We are currently assessing our parish's greatest strengths and opportunities, and need your response to help strengthen our parish and better prepare us for the future - as we strive to reflect more of Christ's love in our community. For the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey link, please visit: https://survey.catholicleaders.org/d/da4591 or QR code>>.Please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parish.

STAND UP SUNDAY

The Diocese of Palm Beach would like to thank all the people in our parish who are helping to safeguard our children and vulnerable adults by taking Protecting God's Children courses. They have completed our abuse prevention curriculum in order to stop abuse of both our children, and the vulnerable adults in our care as well.

Parishes will implement Stand up Sunday in recognition of the United Nations World Day for the Prevention of and Healing from Child Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Violence on the weekend of November 14th and 15th. Stand up Sunday was created to recognize and affirm the church's efforts in safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults by recognizing those who are background checked, and have completed our abuse prevention curriculum.

Thank you to everyone who is helping our children and vulnerable adults to stay safe.

Lamps Bridegroom Foolish Wise Oil
Asleep Midnight Trim Feast Awake

©Diocesan

The Lamplight of our Lives

In today's Gospel, we are given one directive: be ready. We are all living alongside each other in the world. We have our families, our friends, and our work associations among other groups of people with whom we spend time, but that does not mean we are all the same. We are not all living the same interior lives. The ten virgins in the parable all lived alongside each other, but only half were prepared to meet the bridegroom. And let us not be mistaken; the bridegroom is Jesus.

The ten virgins wander out into the dark to wait, and yet some of them don't remember to bring extra flasks of oil with them. Not knowing how long they would wait or when the time would come for the bridegroom to appear, they should have assessed the situation before they went out. They even got drowsy and fell asleep in their waiting, even those who didn't bring extra oil for their lamps. Many people live this way, moment to moment, without a thought of preparation for things to come. They get along in life, asking those who are prepared to share their stores.

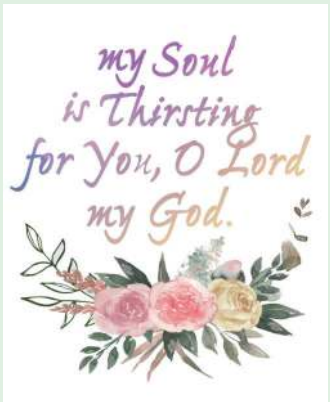

This reminds me of the old cartoon based on Aesop's Fable about the ants and the grasshopper, where the ants work all summer long building up their stores, while the grasshopper lies back and enjoys itself until winter comes and is unprepared. Then, the suffering begins. It is a deadly way to live, and in the reading today, Jesus isn't talking about surviving the night or the winter. He is alluding to everlasting life.

Half of the virgins were sent to go off to buy more oil for their lamps at midnight. It's the darkest hour, and they have to go in search of oil while those who prepared are called into the feast. Where will they find a vendor to buy oil from at midnight? Did they knock on doors that weren't answered only to delay them further? Their inability to plan pushed them even further from the banquet, but the time had already passed. The door was locked right away after those whose lamps were still lit entered the feast. There was no more time for preparation. Their chance had passed.

Jesus warns us, "For you know neither the day nor the hour." We must prepare now during our earthly lives through prayer, receiving Sacraments, and spending our time by carrying forth the teachings of Jesus. For when our last breath passes out of us and our lamplight goes out, the time for preparation will have passed. By Anita L Renaghan

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

All Christians in both East and West embraced the care of the sick as essential to church life. In the West, the importance of the visit of the priest is stressed, while in the East, the sick person is brought to the church for a full Liturgy of the Word. Some, such as the Armenians, even call it the "Ritual of the Lamp," since the oil is poured out of the lamp by which the Word is read. This may be why Eastern Christians sometimes anoint the sick with this oil, since the trip to church might kill them. Our tradition in the West also unfolded in monasteries, where it was possible for infirm monks to be attended with a full and beautifully consoling liturgy. In 950 the monks of St. Alban's Abbey in Mainz produced a ceremonial book that was instantly a pastoral hit everywhere. There were two lengthy rituals for the sick, one an extended vigil, and the other a liturgy of anointing that included Communion under both species. While this ritual was a house formula for monks, it is easy to see how monks who had the care of parishes desired to serve their parishioners in a similar way. The first form included the chanting of penitential psalms, and the second form required a confession beforehand. Both forms included a laying on of hands, which everyone understood as being an essential part of penance. —Rev. James Field

Suggested Donation is $100. Please visit the office to check available dates.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and con- solation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtful- ness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your par- ish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
