HOLY SPIRIT PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are called to embrace faith in the Son of God as Lord and Savior. In our Roman Catholic tradition, through the cleansing waters of Baptism, we die to self and rise as children of the Father.

Confirmed, empowered and guided by His Spirit, we become the church when we gather in His name, are taught with His living Word, and are nourished with His living presence.

So that, we might be sent to witness the Good News of the Paschal Mystery in loving service to the human family; and be united with Him and His Saints in Heaven forever.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.
O God, who have taught
the hearts of the faithful
by the light of the Holy Spirit,
grant that in the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in
His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation,
we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection.
We ask that you keep us safe
from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons.
Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope
in Your love and mercy.
You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain.
You alone bring peace, calm, and safety.
Father,
we thank you in advance,
for you are our only Refuge.
We ask this through Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.
Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

Office of The Diocesan Bishop

October 28, 2026

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
The Lord calls us to walk with those in need, offering the hope, dignity, and compassion that flow from our faith in Jesus Christ. Throughout our Diocese of Palm Beach, Catholic Charities is a visible expression of that Gospel mission.
Catholic Charities serves people throughout our Diocese every day, assisting families in crisis, vulnerable seniors, expectant mothers, children, those experiencing hunger or homelessness, and individuals who are isolated or imprisoned. Through its many ministries, Catholic Charities upholds the dignity of every human life and makes present the compassionate love of Christ.
To strengthen this mission, I am asking every parish in the Diocese of Palm Beach to participate in the Annual Second Collection for Catholic Charities on the weekend of November 14-15, 2026. We have chosen this weekend because it falls near the Feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, Patroness of Catholic Charities. Her deep love for Christ was reflected in her humble service to the poor and marginalized. Her example reminds us that charity is not simply one of the Church's works; it is at the heart of our identity as disciples of Jesus.
I invite you to prayerfully support this collection so that Catholic Charities may continue bringing hope, healing, and help to those most in need throughout our Diocese. Thank you for your faithful stewardship and your commitment to the mission of the Church. May God bless you and your families abundantly. Assuring you of my remembrance in the celebration of the Eucharist and invoking upon you, your family and those you serve the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain
Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez, J.C.D.
Bishop of Palm Beach

In mid-October, all parishioners will have an opportunity to offer their feedback as part of a consultation to aid Bishop Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez in his leadership of the Diocese of Palm Beach. Part of the process is the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), which will seek to give Bishop Manuel a snapshot of Catholic life here, who the parishioners are, and what is working well or needs attention in parishes. As the bishop explains in a video promoting the DMI, the survey will be available from Oct. 15 to Nov. 24, 2026.

STAND UP SUNDAY

The Diocese of Palm Beach would like to thank all the people in our parish who are helping to safeguard our children and vulnerable adults by taking Protecting God's Children courses. They have completed our abuse prevention curriculum in order to stop abuse of both our children, and the vulnerable adults in our care as well.

Parishes will implement Stand up Sunday in recognition of the United Nations World Day for the Prevention of and Healing from Child Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Violence on the weekend of November 14th and 15th. Stand up Sunday was created to recognize and affirm the church's efforts in safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults by recognizing those who are background checked, and have completed our abuse prevention curriculum. Thank you to everyone who is helping our children and vulnerable adults to stay safe.

HOLY SPIRIT'S 16TH ANNUAL SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS IS COMING SOON!

During the weekend of Saturday, November 21st and Sunday, November 22nd the Religious Education Dept will be handing out the Spirit of Christmas ornaments to all the parishioners who would like to help make this holiday special for the children of our parish, and to help make their holiday wishes come true. The joy this gifting gives to both the children and their families, and the incredible generosity of the Holy Spirit givers is truly what this season is all about; it is magical.

Before and after each Mass, we will be out front handing out the gift ornament requests, and we are looking forward to seeing everyone then. If you should have any questions concerning the Spirit of Christmas event, please contact Patrice Althouse who will be happy to answer any questions or concerns at 561-585-5970.

Thank you in advance to the many parishioners who help make our children's and their families dreams come true.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Use It or Lose It

When I hear the Gospel reading for this Sunday, I wonder what that third servant was doing all that time, after he buried the talent he was given. Probably nothing. What strikes me is that the word for money in this reading is "talent," which in our language is an ability or skill. So maybe this parable can remind us to use our abilities and not let them go to waste.

It is sad to see someone who is not very good at his job just because he never developed his inborn talents. But if you know what gifts or abilities God gave you, you can develop them to be much more than you expected. A person might be strong and fast, but if she exercises and practices, she could be a great athlete. The same with a spiritual gift. Just having one doesn't make you a saint. So how do you know what gifts you have?

First, ask God in your prayers to show you what gifts you have been given. Find a spiritual director, or even your parish priest, and talk about your life, your strengths and weaknesses. Read about saints and how they used their gifts to serve the Lord. Read the scriptures, especially the Acts of the Apostles or the Letters of Paul (e.g., 1 Corinthians 12:1–11). Listen humbly to friends or loved ones who can tell you what strengths they see in you.

Second, look for ways to use your gifts. Check the parish bulletin or website or your diocesan newspaper for activities and organizations that you could take part in. Hospitals, schools, shelters, and nursing homes frequently offer opportunities for volunteers. If one kind of service seems attractive to you, that could be God's way of telling you to try it. On the other hand, a job that seems very challenging could be what you need to stretch your spiritual muscles. Or you may see a need for some service that you can get started in the parish or community.

Just remember that you are called to service by your baptism and confirmation. Don't bury that calling by procrastinating or being afraid to try. Remember the "useless servant" with the one talent who was fearful and lazy (Matthew 25:25–26). At least he can remind us to use it or lose it. Tom Schmidt

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Coming to the end of the Church year, we can wonder how we got "extreme unction" out of "anointing of the sick." "Extreme" comes from a Latin phrase, in extremis, which in English refers to the last struggle of a dying person. "Last rites" is a phrase in common usage, and refers to the fact that years ago everyone waited until the last crisis of illness to summon the priest. The goal of anointing had always been healing and forgiveness, but in time it began to be seen as a preparation for death. In a hard world, almost anything from a hangnail to a sneeze could be life-threatening, so perhaps the change was inevitable. The emphasis on the penitential aspects was heightened, even to the odd practice of Rome in the twelfth century, when the sick person was sprinkled with ashes mixed with holy water and given a hair shirt as a sign of penance.

The reformers thankfully overlooked some of these oddities of history, and today the sacrament of the sick is much more generously applied to persons in a wide range of situations. Still, it is a sacrament of reconciliation, and for that reason is not celebrated for an infant or toddler, although there is a rite for a visit to a sick child not including anointing or Communion.

The celebration of a Christian's life brings hope and con- solation to the living. As we plan for our eternal life, it is always good to remember those that we love. Having a Will is good stewardship.

When there is a Will there is a way to be an angel for your parish. Please remember Holy Spirit Catholic Church in your Will.

These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. We appreciate the thoughtful- ness of parishioners who have left bequests to Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

You can have an everlasting influence on the lives of your par- ish family of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. There are various forms of bequests that can be made. Bequests may come in the form of a specific dollar amount, by adding Holy Spirit Parish to your account; securities, real estate, tangible property, and retirement account assets.

If a Will or Trust already exists, a codicil amendment can be easily added to your current will. Holy Spirit Catholic Church is a charitable non-profit institution; therefore all bequests are fully tax deductible for estate tax purposes.

For additional information, please contact the parish office at 561-585-5970 or e-mail office@holyspiritlantana.com or complete the form below and drop it in the offertory basket or bring it to the parish office and someone will contact you. Thank you for your generosity!
